HIGH COST OF LIVING DISCUSSED BY PRESIDENT OF GRAIN GROWERS

JOE CHAMBERLAIN RESIGNS HIS SEAT IN BRITISH HOUSE

Has Represented West Birmingham in British Parliament Since 1885.

WILL PROBABLY BE SUCCEEDED BY SON

Former Unionist Gladiator Has Not Appeared in House for Three Years.

London, Jan. 7.—The resignation of Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain as member for West Birmingham in the house of commons is officially announced. "Joe" has represented this riding since 1885. Neville Chamberlain is mentioned as the probable successor of his father as West Birmingham's representative.

It is rather a singular coincidence, although there is no connection between the two circumstances, that the formation of a Unionist tariff protest league should also be announced today, the object being "to oppose the present fiscal policy of the Unionist party."

Irreverent liberal papers describe its object as being to kick tariff reform out of the party altogether.

In a letter addressed today to the president of the Unionist association, of Birmingham, Mr. Chamberlain says: "Before leaving for the south of France, I think I ought to communicate to you the decision at which I have arrived to retire from parliament at the next general election. I have not come to this decision without many regrets at the severance of a connection which has already lasted over 37 years and has been marked on the part of my constituents by ever-growing confidence and support. But I cannot hope again to do my work in parliament and I feel that our city and the constituency of West Birmingham need the service of a younger man, who will take an active part in the parliamentary struggle and help you to maintain the supremacy of the Unionist cause in Birmingham."

Mr. Chamberlain leaves Highbury, his residence at Birmingham, next week for London. After passing a few days there he will proceed to his usual winter visit to the south of France.

There has been no change for the worse in Mr. Chamberlain's health recently. It is, however, nearly eight years since he spoke in the house of commons and nearly three years since he appeared there and then only for a few minutes at the opening of the session of 1911 when he was assisted into the house in order that he might take the oath.

Laudatory references to the long political career of Joseph Chamberlain and expressions of regret at the passing of one of the commanding figures of British public life are made today by newspapers of all political shades of thought in announcing the retirement of the aged statesman.

Special mention is made in many instances of Mrs. Chamberlain's affectionate care of her husband during his long illness.

GOVERNMENT SHIP BUILDING PROGRAM TO BE COMPLETED

Times Says Churchill Violated Principle Regarding Overseas Ships.

London, Jan. 7.—The Times devotes its principal editorial today to the government's shipbuilding program, arguing that Rt. Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill's speech at Manchester in October, was a clear declaration that the government intended to meet its naval commitments to the full and that the necessity was evidently recognized of filling the gap if the Canadian naval contribution failed.

The Times, however, further argues that Mr. Churchill, in regarding the battleship New Zealand as a part of the North Seas strength of the navy, violated the principle application to the overseas dominion ships, and concludes with the opinion that the clear declarations of Mr. Churchill and other ministers on the subject of their duty to the navy taken into conjunction with certain earlier observations of the chancellor of the exchequer himself, warrant the belief that Lloyd George's recent utterances have, in some quarters, been taken too seriously.

ARCHDUCHESS NOW A NURSE.

Vienna, Jan. 7.—The Archduchess Isabella, whose marriage to Prince George of Havaria was dissolved last October, has since been working as a nurse in a hospital here. She says that it is her intention to devote her life to nursing and that she will shortly go from here to Spain. Later she intends visiting Albania where she will organize a public sick-nursing service.

EDMONTON TO CHIGAGO IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS

With Good Connections the Canadian Northern Railway Could Make Run to Windy City, via Winnipeg and Duluth, in Two Days Flat.

The report that the C.P.R. would next summer put a five-hour train on between Calgary and Edmonton has started speculations as to faster time on other lines running into Edmonton, and according to information gleaned by the Capital from local railway offices, it is probable that all the railways will make faster time to the east after this winter.

At present the G.T.P., with the shorter line, makes the run between Winnipeg and Edmonton in twenty-seven and a half hours, but it is stated that the C.P.R. will put on a new fast train on its Winnipeg-Saskatoon-Edmonton line next summer which will cut down its time to approximately what the G.T.P. is now. At present although the C.P.R. route is only 60 miles longer than the G.T.P., it takes about five hours longer to make the run, so that by cutting out local work and improving the road it should be comparatively easy to compete with the G.T.P. time.

Asked as to what the Canadian Northern would do if the C.P.R. time was cut down, a C.N.R. man stated today that he thought his road could make it in about 26 hours next summer. At present the C.N.R. is about 30 miles longer than the G.T.P., but as the train leaves both Winnipeg and Edmonton at night, the trip takes about the same length of time as the C.P.R.

"This would make it possible to make the trip right from Edmonton to Chicago, via Duluth," he stated, "in 48 hours, which is much faster than any route at present. Now, however, our train gets into Winnipeg in the morning and does not leave for Duluth until that evening. If the time table were arranged so that good connections could be made I think a 48-hour trip would be feasible."

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM WILL BE RENDERED AT LIBERAL RALLY FRIDAY

In view of the coming session of the dominion parliament, which promises to be an important one from many standpoints, and the expected federal election this year, the liberal rally to be held in the south side club rooms, Douglas block, Whyte avenue, tomorrow night will probably be well attended by liberals and others from both sides of the river.

Three entertaining speakers will be present to speak on the issues of the day in the persons of Hon. Duncan Marshall, Hon. Wilfred Gariepy, the recently appointed minister of municipalities, and J. M. Douglas, M.P., for Strathcona.

The evening will, however, not be given over entirely to political speechmaking, as a fine musical program has been arranged for. It is to be a kind of get-together meeting, and short, crisp talks will be the order of the day. The meeting starts at 8:30 sharp.

WHITNEY'S CONDITION CHANGES; STIMULANTS USED TO PROLONG LIFE

New York, Jan. 7.—After a night of comparative rest, Sir James Whitney's condition changed this morning and now he is still keeping alive and not much more. Stimulants are being administered freely to keep the flagging heart muscles up to their work, but the issue remains in much doubt. The end may come very soon, or another favorable turn may come.

No Hope of Settlement.

London, Jan. 7.—The parliamentary correspondent for the Morning Post said yesterday that there is no reason to doubt that the home rule conversations between Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law have been void of practical result, and that all hope of an understanding or compromise has been abandoned. Another interview to definitely close the negotiations is probable.

CONVENTION TO TAKE UP MANY TIMELY TOPICS

All Prominent Matters in Eyes of Agricultural World of the West.

RECORD ATTENDANCE GETS MUCH PRAISE

Farmers Taking Earnest and Intelligent Interest in the Organization.

Brandon, Jan. 7.—Welcomed in loyal terms and hearty fashion by Mayor Hughes, himself an old time grain grower, the four hundred delegates to the eleventh annual Grain Growers' convention began this morning to discuss some of the matters now prominent in the eyes of the agricultural world of the west. The attendance of delegates at the opening was well up to the average and a feature of the convetino this year was the large sprinkling of the fairer sex. Old timers say this is the best attendance opening session there being over two hundred registered before 10 o'clock.

President R. C. Henders of Culross, in his annual address referred to the record attendance, especially when so little had been done in the matter of advertising the convention. These facts pointed to the solid earnest and intelligent grasp the farmers were taking in the organization.

President Henders went fully into the high cost of living question, the main part of his address dealing with this problem.

Mayor J. H. Hughes in the address of welcome referred to the cordial feeling with which Brandon always received grain growers at these big annual meetings and the honor which wheat city folks felt at the recognition of the heritage of Brandon as the center of one of the best wheat growing districts of the whole world. He went on to speak of the growth of Brandon and claimed that Brandon had withstood the drain of money tightness better than any other city in the west.

After the president had briefly replied, a sympathetic note was struck when Mr. J. L. Brown, of Pilot Mound, moved a vote of condolence to both the president and secretary.

The former lost his parents during the year and latter buried his wife a few months ago.

J. L. Brown, Pilot Mound, referring to co-operation as urged by the president, suggested the formation of a central committee, named by the chairman, to bring in a general resolution dealing with the matter.

W. H. Bewell seconded.

That presiden said he was quite in accord with the suggestion and the following were named: Rod McKenzie, L. Brown, Pilot Mound, and Benjamin Bewell of Rosser.

The directors report was next taken.

MARTIAL LAW IN ALBANIAN PORT

Political Murders Have Been Frequent During the Past Few Weeks.

RESULT OF REGAL RIVALRY

Tribes of Southern Albania Are Said to Be on the Verge of War.

Vienna, Jan. 7.—Martial law was proclaimed today at Avlona, the Albanian seaport on the Adriantic sea.

No details were given in the despatch reporting the proclamation but it is considered probable that this section is connected with recent reports of a scheme to place Izzet Pasha until lately Turkish minister of war, on the throne of Albania.

Another view is that it was brought about by the Venizelists between the adherents of Essad Pasha, who is virtually dictator in Central Albania, and those of Ismael Remal Bey, head of the provisional autonomous government. Political murders among the partisians of the rival chiefs have been frequent during the last few weeks, and the tribes of Southern Albanian are said to be on the verge of war among themselves.

M'NAMARA HIMSELF TO UNDERTAKE BURDENS OF FINANCE COMMISSIONER

STRIKE OF GOLD AT BEAVER LAKE AT PRINCE ALBERT

Find is the Result of Many Months of Prospecting—First Samples True Indications of the Wealth of the Area—Assay of Montreal Experts Gives Ground for Hope.

Prince Albert, Sask., Jan. 7.—A strike of gold is reported here at Beaver Lake northeast of Prince Albert. The find came as result of many months prospecting by Dan Mosher who is backed by local syndicate of prominent men. After Mosher reported his find last June, John Ashby, Frank Trombley and George Stalliker of this city went to location where gold was struck and returned to the city satisfied that first samples were true indication of wealth of gold area. The assay of Milton Heresy and company, of Montreal, gives ground, syndicate says, for optimism. The ore is of free milling quality and the first lead to be worked is 24 feet in width. The formation of a company to handle this property is now under way. Such prominent residents of Prince Albert as D. W. Alsam, alderman; H. Woodman, H. W. Hudson, J. B. Kerpaghan, H. E. Lacroix and A. Besnardare are among the directors. Other companies are being organized. The excitement in the city and vicinity over the find which has been kept very quiet up to date is now marked.

Many residents are leaving on this afternoon's train as a start on their journey to Beaver lake. Parties from Edmonton and Saskatoon are in the city outfitting for the trip north.

GENERAL MEETING ENDORSES BOARD PUBLIC WELFARE

Chairman Cushing Reports on the Good Work of the Association.

DO NOT WANT TO BE UNPREPARED AGAIN

Mr. Richardson Addresses the Meeting on "Vocational Guidance."

Chairman A. T. Cushing read the report on unemployment showing good work accomplished by the association in this field, by securing the civic grant of $25,000 for wages and relief for the unemployed of Edmonton. Mr. Cushing also read the report which he presented to the city council Monday evening, a part of which related to the appointment of a board of public welfare.

Board Endorsed.

Mr. Cushing asked that the meeting give its endorsation to this proposal, and explained the working of the board as proposed, saying that such a board has been found very effective in Kansas City.

Dr. Dyde supported the proposal, saying that one of the advantages of such a board will be that the city council will have a volunteer body to supplement its own work, and said the council will be well advised if it seeks to engage the services of such a body of citizens. Replying to a suggestion that tax payers may object to a citizen body in control of relief work that involves expenditure of money, Dr. Dyde pointed out that the board will be supported by the city council and he said he believed that all interests will be thus safeguarded.

Edgar Richardson endorsed the proposition, and said it is a wise thing to have some organization that will look into the future to see that the city is not caught unprepared again as it was this year. Men who accept such positions will be, said Mr. Richardson, likely to be fearless and sagacious in making recommendations to the city council. Mr. Richardson seconded Dr. Dyde's motion to endorse the proposal, which was adopted.

Vocational Guidance.

Following the business meeting, W. L. Richardson, superintendent of public schools, gave an excellent address on "Vocational Guidance." Mr. Richardson said in part:

"Much of the discussion so far carried on by the Welfare League has been concerned with men and women who are in difficulties, with unemployed, and with housing problems and so forth. My topic, on the contrary, has to do with boys and girls of 14 years of age who are comparatively young and presumably innocent. With regard to much of the previous discussion concerning industrial discontent, it is my opinion that this is caused primarily by men getting a wrong start, going into work which may be well paid at the commencement, but after a short time containing no further advancement, and is in effect a 'blind alley' occupation. It is a real tragedy when a man discovers at 28 years of age or thereabouts that he is an unskilled laborer, while at the same time he feels that if he had been carefully directed ten years before he might have been also be the wage he finds himself. He is now too old to commence at the foot of the ladder and learn some business, and he cannot afford to accept the pay given to one who is commencing at the foot of the ladder, so he begins to curse his lot and eventually becomes a social menace.

"To offset this, I suggest that measures be taken to provide vocational guidance for young people, the general aim being to arouse and direct the attention of boys and girls, their teachers and parents to the various vocations of life. The mental and physical requirements of their vocation should be studied and understood, and also the possibility of advancement. If it were commonly known that the average income of lawyers during the first five years of their practice is very low, and that young doctors often spend years in patiently waiting for business, perhaps fewer would rush into these professions. And if it were realised that the average number of work days per year for masons in the city of Toronto in 1912 was only 176, the $5 per day which masons receive might be viewed in a different light. If boys and girls and their parents can be made to understand that small pay at the commencement may mean very large pay later on, there will be fewer industrial and professional mis-fits and less discontentment." After outlining the different plans and methods for work at present being carried on in Boston, New York, Munich and other cities, Mr. Richardson made suggestions toward the solution of the problem in Edmonton. The address was followed by a discussion in which several members of the association took part, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Richardson.

PENITENTIARY MAY BE MOVED TO A LOCATION SOUTH OF STRATHCONA

According to a report received by the Capital this morning, there is a movement on foot to have the penitentiary moved to a point south of Strathcona. It was stated that the parties interested are doing everything in their power to get the government at Ottawa to sanction this change. It was further learned that in the event of the Dominion government not agreeing to this change, that the penitentiary will be located somewhere in the vicinity of Athabasca.

VETERINARY INSPECTOR SHOOTS TWELVE HEAD OF GLANDERED HORSES

Moose Jaw, Sask., Jan. 7.—Dominion Government Veterinary Inspector McMurtry took prompt action yesterday afternoon at Crestwynd, 25 miles southwest of Moose Jaw, when he shot 12 head of valuable horses owned by Harley Miller because they were affected with glanders. The horses were brought through Moose Jaw a month ago from north of the city and taken to Miller's ranch, they were kept in a local stable for two days. The stable has been ordered closed by Mayor Pascoe. It is understood that all the horses in the neighborhood are being watched in case there should be any further signs. The loss to Miller is very heavy as the horses were valuable.

RICHARDSON TO FILL A POSITION AS HIS DEPUTY

Await Return of Clarke Before Making Other Changes in Board.

BUCK AND BOWNESS ARE OUT OF THEIR OLD JOBS

Decided That Chalmers Will Take Charge of Department of Operation.

Following a meeting of the city commissioners held in Mayor McNamara's office this morning, his worship announced that the departments of inspector Buck and Cost Engineer Bowness had been abolished, and that C. L. Richardson, former city auditor, had been appointed as deputy commissioner of finance, the salary being $375 a month, a slight increase over his previous salary which was $4,000 a year.

While the committee appointed to divide the duties of the commissioners has not convened yet, due to the fact that one member, Joseph Clarke, is at present absent from the city, Mayor McNamara stated today that it has been appointed as deputy commissioner charge of the finance department which will include the central administration, the assessment, the cost engineer's and the stores and works departments.

When his attention was called to the fact that the department of the cost engineer had been abolished the mayor stated that while this was the case the work will nevertheless be handled, but in a different way.

"I want you to understand," said his worship, "that we have not fired these men. I don't know them personally, and have only met one of them. While the department has been abolished there will be other departments needing extra help. The auditor has had more than he can do and some of his men and some from those abolished departments will likely be used by the deputy finance commissioner just appointed."

The mayor also announced that it has been decided that Commissioner Chalmers will take charge of the department of operation, this will include the power plant, the street railway, the operation of the waterworks department, electric light and telephone departments.

What Harrison Will Do.

"The natural place for Commissioner Harrison is in the department of safety and health, but this has not been definitely decided yet" continued the mayor. "The committee will hold a meeting as soon as all the members are in the city. We have a quorum, but I do not wish to go on until the return of Alderman Clarke."

As soon as this committee meets they will decide who will head the other three departments, the public works, the safety and health and the parks and market departments.

When asked if the three commissioners will all be retained, the mayor replied that this matter would not be decided by the committee and he expected that they would have their recommendations ready to submit to the council at the next regular meeting on Tuesday evening next.

If the commissioners are retained one new commissioner will be appointed, as there are five departments, and it is proposed that there shall be a commissioner to take charge of each.

In reference to the publicity which shall be given to all public matters this year, the mayor stated this morning that he had discussed this question with the commissioners and that only in matters of policy will it be necessary for the news to eminate from the mayor's office. In all other cases the news will be given to the press by the commissioner in charge of the various departments that have been committed to his care. This should mean that there will be the fullest publicity give into all public matters under the present administration. It is the direct opposite to the instructions issued early last year by ex-Mayor Short when he sent notices to all departments that no information should be given out except through the mayor.

Two Places Abolished

Following the decision of the commission board to abolish the two departments mentioned above, the commissioners' secretary, Robert English, forwarded to the heads of these departments, the notice which follows:

"At a meeting of the Board held yesterday, it was unanimously resolved to abolish your department as from the 15th inst. The services of yourself and the members of the department will therefore not be required after that date. You will therefore hand over to C. L. Richardson, all files of correspondence and other documents now in the possession of your department."

Want Man Deported.

Regina, Jan. 7.—The police brought up charles McGregor Fisher on a charge of vagrancy yesterday morning, but the magistrate refused to convict. The immigration commissioner at Winnipeg wants Fisher deported. He deserted his wife in Glasgow.

ROASTED CHICKEN USED TO SECRETE MONEY AND OPIUM

Brandy and Whisky Hidden in Others—Turnip Found to Contain Tobacco—Guards Earning $600 a Year Lived at the Rate of $2,000—Men Higher Up Implicated.

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 7.—At Yesterday afternoon's session of the prison reform commissioner, Inspector W. S. Hughes stated that many guards were drawing a salary which until a short time ago was approximately $600 a year, yet were living at a rate which would suppose a salary of more than $2,000.

That the guards that were under suspicion in Kingston penitentiary for trafficking in tobacco were not the principal ones concerned, was another startling statement of Inspector Hughes. He proceeded to outline the facts that other and older guards were concerned in the matter, and told in brief but expressive language—which evidently impressed the commissioners—how there were men bigger in the rolls of the institution who had go-betweens in Canahoque, Napanee, Collins Bay and other small places who would receive the money from friends of the convicts and transfer it to them. When pressed for names, he refused to speak, claiming that he had not sufficient evidence to convict.

In further expressive words, the inspector detailed the method by which contraband articles were smuggled to the convicts with the cognizance, and often the co-operation of the guards and higher officials. On one occasion a roasted chicken contained $52; others secreted opium, brandy, whisky and money. A turnip, on being dissected, was found to contain tobacco, a portion of the centre being hollowed out to admit of the concealment of the contraband weed. Nothing, in the opinion of the inspector, could be done to get at the source of the trouble.

More industries for the employment of the convicts, such as the manufacture of government offices furniture, military and police uniforms, mail bags, and shoes for the different departments, were suggested by Inspector Stewart as possible means for employing the surplus labor of the "birds." That they should receive a certain recompense for their labors, to be devoted to the upkeep of their families was also recommended.

That judges were responsible for a great deal of injustice in sentencing prisoners, especially youthful offenders, and were also responsible for the necessity of segregation of convicts, by reason of sending youthful and first offenders down, was another statement of Inspector Stewart.

Inspector Douglass Stewart, of Ottawa, who, according to certain convicts, had used the hose on them, said he had been inspector since February 1895, and had also carried out the duties of warden at the Portsmouth penitentiary from May 1912 to April 1913. From memory he believed that six convicts had been hosed in this time.

The men were hosed on his instructions and he was present at all the "hosings" handling the hose himself. The convicts had used abusive language towards guards and had been hosed because they refused to apologize.

"What is your opinion of these kinds of punishments?" Mr. Stewart was asked.

"I think it to be most effective and most humane punishment for incorrigible convicts. I do not know what else the guards could do, unless they took clubs to beat the convicts."

Witnesses declared that the "hosing" was not detrimental to the health of the convicts.

FINLEY, IDOL OF MOROS, MAY AGAIN GOVERN THEM

Washington, Jan. 7.—That Colonel John P. Finley, is to regain his place as Governor of the Zamboanga section of the Moro Province as a result of the retirement of Brigadier General John J. Pershing, as Governor of the Moro Province, is the rumor in circulation in army circles here. To Finley is attributed the disarming and partly civilizing of several tribes of this, the most savage type of inhabitants in our island possessions. Unlike Pershing, who believed the way to subdue the Moro was to kill him, Finley won their confidence by trusting them and proving to them that they could better their condition by copying the customs of the outside world. He noticed their primitive methods of exchange. The shore dwellers, wishing fruits, would slip into the woods and hang their fish on trees. The hill tribes would come down with fruits and leave them in exchange for the fish. Those who would neither fish nor fruits, helped themselves and lived without labor. Finley established the Moro Exchange. He erected in Zamboanga a public market, with booths, kitchen and a eating house. Around them he built a stock ade guarded by troops, for the protection of the traders. A native board of directors governed it and a native superintendended it. By this method Finley gradually induced the natives to sell their goods for cash and buy what they needed for cash. This system proved a great success, and thereafter Finley's will was law among the Zamboagoans. But Pershing did not approve of peaceful tactics apparently, for when Finley went on a mission as Most High Master of his subjects to confer with the Sultan of Turkey regarding their religious practices, Pershing filled his place with another man. Finley is going back again and it is believed he will be given his old post.

ONE WOMAN WRITER FINDS MERE MAN NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

London, Jan. 7.—Sir James Barrie and George Bernard Shaw had a rather doleful meeting at the Adelphi Hotel, where they both live, the other morning. They both agreed that the dramatic critics who abused their new plays "Androcles and the Lion" and "The Adored One" were a pretty trashy crowd. Both playwrights have left town, Barrie repairing to his Scotish home, Killiecrankie Cottage, which nestles amid somber hills in Perthshire.

The cottage, only recently rented by Barrie, is the basis of much amusement in London literary circles, as a most surprising romance may spring out of the new tenancy. It formerly belonged to Marie Corelli, of whose work Barrie cannot be said to be a great admirer. They had occasion to exchange correspondence over certain matters connected with the cottage, which resulted in a personal meeting in the town.

Miss Corelli was present at the first night of "The Adored One" as the author's guest and his friends say the shy dramatist, who has been almost a woman later since his divorce, has shown himself most affable towards the fair, plump Marie, who has expressed sentiments of admiration for Barrie which are not in accordance with her usual scorn of all things masculine.

This rather incongruous literary friendship excited much interest and further developments are anxiously awaited.

HINTERLAND IS MUCH TO THE FORE

Peace River Can No Longer Be Considered an Inaccessible Region.

SEVEN AND HALF DAY TRIP

Chief Engineer Smith of Dunvegan Road Makes 800 Mile Jaunt.

The time has already come when the much-talked-about Peace River country can no longer be considered an out-of-the-way, inaccessible region. Even before those bands of steel known as railroad track have pierced into the territory, his gasoline majesty has brought wilderness into civilization and linked together Edmonton and the famous hinterland.

Probably the fastest trip yet made from Edmonton to Peace River Crossing and back was completed last night when a party under the direction of W. H. Smith, chief engineer of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. railway, arrived back in the city after an 800-mile jaunt. Of the 800 miles, 650 were made in a Hudson auto ,owned by the Phoenix Taxi and Auto company, limited, of Edmonton and driven by Arthur Taylor, brother of the head of the firm. The whole journey took only seven days and a half—not so bad for January when it is considered that automobiles are almost an innovation in the country and freighters count on 12 days to make the trip one way between Athabasca and the Peace river. Prospective passengers have heretofore looked on the trip with more or less dread ,but lately automobiling from Edmonton and back has almost become a habit and a pleasant one too—for those who can afford it.

The party left the city last Tuesday, travelling over the Dunvegan road to Smith, which is the first divisional point and located just opposite Mirror Landing at the junction of the Athabasca and Slave rivers, 231 miles north of Edmonton. Arriving there Wednesday afternoon, they motored to Sawridge, on the eastern end of Lesser Slave lake, about 70 miles, and that afternoon was spent looking around this old settlement. On Friday the last lap of the northbound trip was made—from Grouard to Peace River Crossing, 160 miles. The party looked over this town ,which is at present so much in the limelight, on Saturday, and on Sunday, came back to Grouard, on Monday to Mirror Landing and on Tuesday to Athabasca by ice road and on to Edmonton by trail.

With the party were R. H. Douglas, provincial railway engineer and W. J. Pace, construction superintendent of the railway, who remained at Smith where two bridges are being strung across the Athabasca—one a modern steel bridge structure on which day and night shifts are working and the other a temporary wooden one. Although the steel bridge is expected to be finished by April, so great is the hurry to go ahead with the steel and get freight trains into the country that the wooden bridge is being built.

Both the officials of the railway and business men in Edmonton and all over the Peace River country are daily expecting the necessary authority from the railway commission to run freight trains over the road as far as Smith. Grading has been finished for 220 miles and steel is predicted for Sawridge by March. As soon as freight can be carried over the railway to Sawridge, the transportation problem for a great part of the country will be solved, for the summer months at least, as Sawridge is on Lesser Slave lake and from there to Grouard several lines of steamers ply.

Between Athabasca and Smith on the return journey, the party met the car carrying the Hon. C. W. Cross, J. K. Cornwall and Frank Walker, M.P.P. who are making the same trip.

FAIR BUILDINGS IN UNIT SERIES

Proposal for Erection of Structures for Manufacturers Assured.

MONEY HAS BEEN SECURED

Financing of Million Dollars in Bonds is Practically Complete.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—That the success of the proposal of the Industrial bureau of Winnipeg to establish manufacturing buildings in a series of units on a portion of the old exhibition grounds is practically assured, so far as the financing of the scheme is concerned, is the news brought back from England by Charles F. Roland, who arrived in the capital yesterday, en route home for Winnipeg.

Among other matters ,Mr. Roland went to England to interest capital in the flotation of bonds for the proposed venture.

"The underwriters with whom I negotiated," said Mr. Roland, "received the proposal favorably, and all the preliminary work of financing the million dollars worth of industrial bonds has been practically completed and awaits only certain minor changes and amendments to the 99 year lease from the Winnipeg city council to the Industrial bureau."

The financial arrangements will call for the flotation of the bonds in a series of five issues, each to cover two of the proposed ten units. The site and plans submitted, were looked upon by the underwriters as being well thought out to meet a needed want in Winnipeg for economical manufacturing. The scheme will afford small concerns, with limited capital a better opportunity of getting a foothold, and will at the same time cater to the growing trade which is developing in the prairie province.

BONFIRE BENNETT IS WHOLE SHOW AT A CONSERVATIVE POW-WOW AT CALGARY

Calgary, Jan. 7.—R. B. Bennet, member of parliament for Calgary, was the whole show at the annual meeting of the Calgary Conservative Association last night. He told the assembled conservatives that work on Calgary's million-dollar post office was to be commenced at once, said the federal engineers were in the city to select the site for the internal elevator which is to cost $1,500,000, and that the contract for Calgary's $300,000 armory was to be let in the course of a few months. The meeting was well attended. J. R. Miquelon was elected president and Chas. Taylor secretary for the ensuing year.

EASY TIMES FOR THE UNEMPLOYED NOW AT AN END

They Must Labor for Their Food and Lodging.

SAFETY AND HEALTH COMMITTEE SO DECIDES

All Kinds of Conditions Exist at the Exhibition Grounds.

The "out of work" army, numbering almost four hundred, who have been provided with two good meals a day and a warm place to sleep at the dining hall on the exhibition grounds will find now that life is not so easy after all and that they will be required to work for the food which they receive. This problem was put up to the safety and health committee of council and as reported in the Daily Capital yesterday that committee decided that the men in future must do three and a half hours work each day for the two meals which they have been receiving free of charge hitherto. This work will consist of cleaning up the lanes, brushing and perhaps sewer digging if this can be arranged.

In the method of handling this large crowd there has been very effective methods adopted and one is reminded of the Biblical story of the Savior feeding the five thousand men, besides women and children. At the exhibition grounds the men have been organized into companies and there is a captain in charge of each company, just as the disciples of old were given charge of the companies into which the five thousand men were divided.

The meal tickets are distributed to the captains who then give them to the men in the company. When meal times arrives the men are fed as fast as they are called, each company awaits its turn and then march in line to the mess house. It is quite natural that among such a large number there are to be found all classes and conditions. Some are inclined to kick at everything and everybody while others are as happy and good natured as the day is long. The sweet strains of "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," may be heard from one company intermingling with "Casey Jones," or some other rag time piece from the others.

Between meals some of the men get out in search of work, others play cards if they can get them, while others get together and listen to speakers who come from the crowd. Some action has been taken in regard to the arrest of the "out-of-works" at Calgary. This matter was one of the topics discussed and while there is only $7.09 in the treasury, they have decided to send a small delegation to Calgary to report on the conditions there, evidently they are not willing to rely on the newspaper reports of the situation.

G. T. P. STEEL IS EXPECTED TO REACH FT. GEORGE ON 15TH

G.T.P. steel had reached a point within 13 miles of the Fraser river at Fort George on December 28, and it is expected to reach there by January 15, if not before. A temporary bridge is being constructed over the river, so that the steel can be laid right into Fort George, or Prince George as it will likely be called, and beyond. It is just possible that trains will be operated between Edmonton and the new centre of the British Columbia interior inside of a month—something that has been looked for for some time, but none the less welcome both to Prince George and the rest of the country. It is predicted that considerable building activity will take place there in the spring. At present, among others, a large hotel building is being erected at the corner of Second and Dominion, in the G.T.P. townsite, and it is reported, though not officially, that the G. T. P. will start work on a 200-room hostelry this year. They have reserved a land a warm place to keep at the dining hall on the exhibition grounds will find now that life is not so easy after all and that they will be required to work for the food which they receive. This problem was put up to the safety and health committee of council and as reported in the Daily Capital yesterday that committee decided that the men in future must do three and a half hours work each day for the two meals which they have been receiving free of charge hitherto. THROAT Troubles ARE Dangerous because the swollen glands and inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and impair their healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion stands alone as nature's corrector of throat troubles; its cod liver oil is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue—the glycerine is curative and healing, while the combined emulsion upbuilds the forces to avert the wakening influence which always follow throat troubles.

Scott's Emulsion is best for these important reasons—it relieves; it prevents a relapse; it is not charged with alcohol or stupefying drugs.

Shun substitutes and insist on Scott's.

OLDEST ENGINEER ON THE CANADIAN PACIFIC HANDS IN RESIGNATION

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 7.—James Dobson, of this city, the oldest engineer in the employ of the Canadian Pacific railway, has resigned after having served continuously with the company since 1881.

He was a well known figure all over the system and holds the extraordinary record of only having met with two accidents, which were no serious. Mr. Dobson who is now 66 years of age was born at Hallerton, Cheshire, England.

PRICES OF CATTLE AND HOGS ARE NOT LIKELY TO GO DOWN SAYS BURNS

"I haven't got much news," said Pat Burns, the Alberta cattle king, to the Capital this morning. "I came up here to look for news, and to see tonight's hockey match."

"Will your new plant in Edmonton be big enough for the next two or three years?" he was asked.

"Well, the country's growing," he replied in an optimistic, but non-committal sort of way.

"What is your opinion as to prices of cattle and hogs for the future?"

"Well, they can't go much higher, they're pretty high now, but they don't go lower. I look for them to remain about the same as at present for the next year anyway. We are getting about all the stock we can handle now, but more people are coming into the country all the time and they all want meat. Of course, a lot of them are raising meat, too. The country is not going to stand still and wait for the packing plants. The packers have got to keep pace with the country."

A QUESTION OF MORAL OBLIGATION.

With the success of the parcels post in United States and the proposal to enlarge the size of parcel carried and lower the rate—a procedure which would put the express companies out of business altogether—the express companies and allied interests, through their various channels of publicity, are raising a clamor of protest against the government thus destroying without compensation an enterprize in which there are millions of dollars of money invested.

The proposal and protest raises a very large question, the question of whether or not the government is under moral obligation to reimburse the stockholders of the express companies or in some way recognize their right. The express companies, naturally, claim that such obligation devolves upon the government, and that the extinction of their investment constitutes confiscation which would, if persisted in along any considerable number of other lines, lead to financial and industrial anarchy and chaos.

However, in making such claim the express company advocates ignore the fact that the paths of the steel trust, the tobacco trust, and other similar trustifications are strewn with the wrecks of weaker concerns which have succumbed to the trusts. The manner in which the parcels post is to extinguish the investment of the stock holders of the express companies is by giving a service for so much less money that the parcel-carrying express companies cannot meet the competition. This, in a word, is what the trusts do in private business. Is the government bound by any higher morality than the trusts?

The question is interesting in Canada just at present in view of the fact that the delay in establishing the parcels post on this side is alleged to be on account of pending negotiations between the government and the railways, in which it is proposed to settle what the government shall pay extra for the carrying of parcels. In these negotiations the railways, on behalf of their allies, the express companies, are making the claim that payment for the carrying of parcels should be calculated not so much upon a basis of what the carrying costs as in consideration of the circumstance that the success of the parcels post eliminates and extinguishes the express companies.

RACE ASSIMILATION IN THE DIM FUTURE.

The problem of race assimilation is not one of the immediate future, though it has a prominent place in the anti-Asiatic agitation now in progress in many parts of the world.

It will be ages before the problem of sustenance will so press the human race as to amalgamate it into one people, with survival as its moving object.

If Prof. Percival Lowell's conclusions are correct with respect to the age, habitability and conditions of the planet Mars, there must have occurred on that orb what will one day come to pass on this. If life on that world is sustained by the seasonal transfer of moisture from poles to equator through an intricate system of huge canals, which girdle, span and cross the surface of that planet, artificial problems have been worked out which would baffle humans divided and subdivided into races and nations.

To do what Prof. Lowell believes the Martians have done would require more than genius. It would require the united efforts of a single race of beings whose dominion covered an entire world.

Until conditions on the earth require that all men shall be as one man, and that the whole human race of necessity must be inspired by one great absorbing purpose for their survival, the process of race assimilation will not be complete, but it will, slowly but surely, be in progress.

That time, which will mark its consummation, is a long way in the future. Toward it we are making, perhaps, invisible progress. The strife marking it are but cycles within a cycle, the pendulum movements of a slowly progressing evolution.

The purposes of creation are inscrutable. The destiny of man is an unsolved mystery. That he will persist as long as environment permits is one fact to be depended upon, and that he must do this collectively is just as certain.

For this, races one day will be amalgamated.

TORONTO HOSTILE TO TRACTION PURCHASE.

If the vote cast in the Toronto municipal election may be taken as a criterion, the Queen City is opposed to the $28,000,000 purchase of the street railway and the MacKenzie and Mann electric equipment and franchises. Hocken's total vote was 21,218, while McBrien polled 16,641 and Burgess 3,725, a total opposition of 21,887 votes polled.

Hocken was unquestionably the candidate of purchase, and he was supported by four of the five Toronto dailies. The other two candidates were opposed to the purchase.

What would have happened had there been only two candidates in the field is, of course, a matter for conjecture, but the aggregate vote makes a very poor invitation for the advocates of purchase to submit their bylaw. The result, however, must be admitted to be a protest against paying ten millions for franchise rather than a repudiation of municipal ownership.

To Smokers.

You know that unpleasant, dry, "throaty" feel after a hard smoke? Peps will remove it. Some smokers try gum, but gum has no effect whatever upon the membranes of the throat. Not only so, but that chewing habit is so disagreeable.

When next you have a sore mouth, "smoker's throat," or a heavy breath, try Peps! One little Pep allowed to dissolve on your tongue will liberate pleasing pine essences which will bathe the inflamed throat membranes in a medicinal vapour bath. This will give you instant ease, and at the same time will sweeten the breath.

For a bad cold, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, or any allied trouble, Peps is the latest and best treatment. They are "the breathing treatment." When throat and lungs are ailing, don't you see how useless it is to swallow medicine into your stomach—an entirely different and unconnected organ—let to the lungs and throat direct, and Peps alone do that.

FREE SAMPLE

If Peps are unknown to you, cut out this article, write upon it name and date of this paper, and mail it with 1c stamp for return postage to Peps Co., 7 Dupont Street, Toronto. TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY

Laval University, Quebec's famous institution of learning, was opened 62 years ago today. The principal educational establishment of the Roman Catholics in Canada was named after Montmorency Francis Xavier de Laval, the first bishop of Quebec, who founded in 1663 the seminary for the training of priests. The university was instituted under a royal charter from Queen Victoria and a papal charter from Pope Pius IX. Within a short time it gained a place among the leading universities of Canada, with a large and spacious building an excellent library, adequate apparatus and a strong faculty of law and clerical professors, with departments devoted to arts, theology, medicine and law. Affiliated with Laval University were the Grand Seminary, founded by Bishop Laval in 1663, and the Little Seminary for literature and philosophy, established by Laval in 1668. The pioneer churchman whose name is commemorated by the Quebec institution was born at Laval, France, in 1622, and was a scion of the noble house of Montmorency. He abandoned the pleasures of a worldly career in civilized France to carry the message of Christianity to the Indians of the Canadian wilderness. His high rank and popularity at the French court enabled him to make and unmake governors, and he was practically the civil as well as the ecclesiastical ruler.

On this date in 1392 the first feminine members of a Canadian school board were elected in Toronto. On Jan. 7, 1901, municipal ownership of gas was secured in Toronto. The first Methodist church in the Maritime Provinces was opened in Halifax 70 years ago today. Sir Sandford Fleming, builder of the Intercolonial railway, and pioneer of the Canadian Pacific, father of the Pan-Britannic telegraph scheme and long chancellor of Queen's University, was born 87 years ago today.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

Russians will Observe Christmas Today, Breaking 24-Hour Fast

In Russia, Greece and other countries where the Greek Catholic church is the state religion, Christmas will be celebrated today. For the millions of Russian Christmas the morning of the Day of Nativity ends a 24-hour fast. On the morning of the day before the great festival of Christendom, the subjects of the Czar begin a strict fast. No food passes their lips, and even water is denied to all but the sick and infirm. This day of abstinence follows a partial fast of three weeks, during which period flesh food and all rich victuals are under the ban, and only the plainest fare may be partaken of.

Christmas Day for the Russians begins with an early morning mass and the ringing of the bells of all the churches. In the land of the Great White Czar the Day of Nativity is a sacred occasion, and a solemn hush broods over the land, broken only by the pealing of the bells. There are no noisy "Merry Christmas" greetings, no hilarity of any kind. The morning services last about two hours after which the worshippers quietly return to their homes to break their fast. It is a happy family that can have a priest to partake of the meal, which consists solely of grits prepared with honey and raisins. The day is spent quietly, and in the evening the church bells again call the faithful to mass. The service continued throughout the night, and in the more important churches the program is very impressive. The story of the birth of Jesus is enacted in a form most dramatic. The long-bearded priest, clad in rich velvet, with a high head-dress, and a large golden cross in his hands, is an imposing figure. The chorus is composed of lads clad in white robes and looking very angelic. Hundreds of candles, and the red glow of incense, dimly illuminate the walls, decorated in silver and gold, the jeweled figures of the Christ, Mary and St. Nicholas and other saints, and the towering, and magnificent altar.

Such is Christmas in Russia. But the festival does not end with Christmas Day. Tomorrow, after mass, the Russians will be free to indulge their festive desires. Sleighing parties are most popular among the young people, while the elder Russians pay and receive Christmas calls. Banquets innumerable, breakfasts, suppers and tea parties, are held during the day. There are balls in the evening, and masquerade parties. The peasants are especially fond of masquerading, and, dressing themselves in grotesque costumes, go from house to house, singing, dancing, telling fortunes, and performing various amusing antics. The wealthier people always bestow alms on the peasant bands, and provide for them a repast of vodka, tea, cakes, and more vodka. By evening the peasant entertainers are comfortably drunk.

Christmas in Russia continues for a week, and during that period business is generally suspended, while the whole people give themselves over to religious rites and later to merrymaking.

Christmas will also be observed today in Greece and the Balkan States. In Greece Christmas will be celebrated by thousands of newlyweds, for the Sunday preceding Christmas is the day of days for "committing matrimony." Most matches are arranged by the parents of the contracting pair, and love matches are the exception rather than the rule. Girls must marry in the order of seniority, and it is considered a scandal when a Greek girl marries while she has an elder sister still unwed.

FIRST THINGS

Balloons.

The first men to cross the English Channel in a balloon were Blanchard and Jeffries, two pioneer aeronauts, who performed their epochal feat 129 years ago today, January 7, 1785. They ascended at Dover and crossed the channel without any mishap, descending at Calais. The first flight across the channel in a heavier-than-air machine was made in 1909 by Blériot. In the same year Latham made two unsuccessful attempts to perform the same feat. Blanchard, one of the participants in the first balloon trip across the channel, was the inventor of the first parachute, which was successfully used in 1785. Mme. Blanchard was the first woman aeronaut to give up her life in the cause of the conquest of the air. Mme. Thible was the pioneer female aeronaut, making her first aerial trip in 1784. Blanchard was also the first to make a balloon ascent in America, performing that feat at Philadelphia on January 9, 1793. George Washington was among the awed spectators who witnessed the rising of the balloon from the yard of the Quaker City jail. The "father of his country" was very much interested, and gave the daring Frenchman a passport, that he might receive kind treatment when he reached the ground again.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Ludwig III., Bavaria's New Monarch, Sixty-nine Today

Bavarians will celebrate today the 69 birthday of their new monarch, King Ludwig or Louis III. As he is the first king Bavaria has had in more than a quarter of a century, the people of the second of the non-Prussian states of the German empire are naturally jubilant. Ludwig II., who committed suicide during a fit of insanity, and Otto, who has been nominal since 1886, although confined in one of his chateaux, were both mental incompetents, and Prince Luitpold, their uncle, ruled as regent until his death last year. He was succeeded in the regency by his son Ludwig, who was recently elevated to the throne in the place of Otto. At first Ludwig declined the proffered crown, but later changed his mind, owing, it is alleged, to the ambition of his wife, who was the Austrian Archduchess Maria Theresa.

King Ludwig is immensely popular with Bavarians, and has never manifested any indications of the insanity that has been a heritage of the Bavarian royal family since it was founded in the 12 century by the Counts of Wittelsbach. Ludwig is a nimrod and spends much of his time in hunting through the Bavarian forests. He was born Jan. 7, 1854, and in 1886 he married the Austrian archduchess who is now Queen Maria Theresa. They have had 10 children, four sons and six daughters, the eldest of the sons being Prince Rupert, who was born in 1869 and married his cousin, Duchess Marie Gebrielle of Bavaria. The Crown Prince has three sons and a daughter.

It is expected that the new monarch will be far less pro-Prussian than his father, the late regent. He was the Bavarian delegate to the coronation of the Czar of Russia, and on that occasion he delivered a public address at which he said that the German states were the allies, not the vassals, of Prussia and the equals of Prussia in every respect.

While King Ludwig has been dubbed "the bourgeois monarch" because of his democracy and affibility, his Queen is haughty and ambitious and a stickler for royal etiquette. She is a half-sister of Empress Christine, who was Queen Regent of Spain during the minority of Alfonso. Some of the German papers have gone so far as to picture Ludwig as "the henpecked king," and have declared that his consort is the real ruler of Bavaria. Her word is said to be law, not only to her royal husband, but to her 18 children and grandchildren.

The deposition of Otto, the lunatic king, and the accession of Ludwig, are popularly attributed to the political wirepulling of the Queen. Old Prince Regent Luitpold often advised his son to rule only as regent, and not to accept kingship, and a year ago Ludwig was apparently firm in his purpose to follow this advice. But the Bavarians were anxious to have a sane king, and the statesmen reflected the popular desire, and Maria Theresa was ambitious, so Ludwig can hardly be blamed for yielding to the influence brought to bear upon him.

The king was seriously wounded at the battle of Helmstadt, and since then he has manifester little interest in military matters. He seldom does a uniform, and in a quiet way he does what he can to advance the peace propaganda. Next to hunting his greatest passion is agriculture, and he is only a practical farmer, but has accomplished much toward improving agricultural methods throughout Bavaria.

HEADS OF STREET DEPARTMENT HONOR SUPT. DAN ALTON

Nearly 50 Officials of Barnches Tell Him What They Think of Him.

LARGEST DEPARTMENT UNDER CITY CONTROL

Co-operation of All Employees Has Been the Key-note of Success.

The predominating spirit which seemed to exist last night at the banquet given by the street maintenance department, in the Blue Moon tea rooms, was the spirit of good-fellowship and cordiality.

Fully 40 to 50 men sat down to enjoy the splendid dinner that was served, these men were the foremen and heads of the different branches that come under the above department. The guest of the evening was Dan Alton, the superintendent of the department.

After the chairman's address, which was delivered by M. J. Stewart, the toast to "The City," was proposed by Mr. Aitken and responded to by the Rev. A. H. McDonald. Mr. McDonald spoke of the wonderful growth of the city in the last few years and paid glowing tribute to the old timers or pioneers. The enviable position that the city held today was due to a large extent to the efforts of those in charge of our civic affairs and to those old timers who had such unbounded faith in the possibilities of this city. The speaker also touched on the work of the street department and said that in a large measure the success was due to the harmony that existed throughout this department.

The chairman next proposed the toast to "Our Guest" and read the following address, which clearly shows the relationship between the superintendent and the men who are his foremen:

Mr. D. Alton,—A great favor has been conferred upon me by being appointed chairman of this meeting, and although I do not confess to be an eloquent speaker, I wish to say a few words which will voice the opinions and expression of the men who are at the present time under your supervision, and working together in the interests of the city.

In the first place, we well realize the up-hill work which has been undertaken by you in the superintendent of a department that has only been inaugurated about nine months, and yet it is today one of the largest, if not the largest department under the city's control, and, according to statistics, is one of the departments which has made a really good showing from a financial point of view during the year 1913.

One of the principal objects of our meeting here tonight is to show our loyalty to our superintendent, who has, in our opinion, worked most conscientiously in the interests of the city of Edmonton. We know it is very hard to make the average tax-payer realize that he is in reality a stock-holder in a large business concern, and although their investment may not be returned to them in hard cash, the department with which we are connected may return to the stock-holders in the form of health (which covers a multitude of things) and conveniences not only to the general public, but to visitors of our city. It is the express wish that it be understood that you, as our superintendent, will discharge any man under your supervision that is not working in the interests of the city, irrespective of cast, creed, or political feeling, because I as chairman feel that it is the inward feeling of the whole of your conscientious workers that any just or sensible administration will leave it to a superintendent to engage and discharge men as he thinks fit, when knowing as they must know, that a man such as we have for superintendent is faithful to his employers, and just to his employees.

Furthermore, Mr. Alton, this meeting wish to express that we intend standing right with you so long as you are our superintendent and continue to work in the interests of the city. We assure you that we will do our utmost to assist you in the undertaking which you have so courageously entered upon and which we have so far faithfully fulfilled.

In responding to the address, Mr. Alton reviewed the work of the department and said he was at a loss for words to express his feelings at the present moment. "It is one of my happiest moments to find that at the close of a year such good feelings and fellowship exist." In speaking of the work of his department, Mr. Alton likened it to a wheel, he and his office staff being the hub while the different sections were the different spokes of the wheel. Of course, he said, they sometimes do receive complaints that a part of the work is not being done satisfactory, and he illustrated this with a case that had only recently come to his notice when a man phoned him at the office and stated that his ashes had not been taken away for two weeks. Upon investigation it proved that the man himself had not taken the ashes out of his cellar for that length of time and he expected that they would come down into his cellar and dump the ashes for him. In conclusion, the superintendent said that the co-operation of the department had been the key-note of its success. "We are being paid by the citizens and it is up to us to give the best service possible."

The toast to "Canada" was responded to by the Hon. Frank Oliver. In opening his address, the speaker said he had not come to represent any political party and that the gathering was merely as citizens and friends. Politics would be left for some future occasion, and he illustrated this with one of his amusing anecdotes. He said it was important that we should be proud we belonged to such a splendid province, but it is necessary that this be linked up with a pride of country, "As Canadians have to think well of our Canada if we are going to make this the successful country that we would like it to be." The speaker added that there was just a possibility of people becoming sectarians, the man from the west thinking that that is the only province of importance, the man from the east that his is the only province of importance. "It takes the whole of the provinces to make up this Canada of ours. We are here, not to be as our fathers were, but we must strive to be better. It should be our ambition as Canadians to lead the world in better civilization and progress."

The toast to the "Press" was proposed by E. W. Armstrong and was responded to by J. Adair, W. D. McLean of the Bulletin, and G. O. Effenberger of the Capital. Short speeches were made by a number of the foremen from the various sections of the work, while the musical part of the program was provided by Mr. Stanley Alton, Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Wiseman.

PAPER ON CANADIAN HISTORY TO BE READ AT OVERSEAS CLUB

Lecture on Canadian History by Alfred Hurt, lecturer of the University of Alberta, this evening at 8 p.m. in the Overseas Club Room, Sandison Block, Jasper East. Mr. Hurt a lecturer on history at the university, will read a paper on "Canadian History." This lecture is one of a series that has been arranged by the Club in pursuance of its objects of familiarising Canada's adopted citizens with the history of their new country.

We who are not native born and have not had the advantage of learning Canadian history in our youth cannot hope to understand the political and social needs of the country unless we inform ourselves on its history. But apart from that it is a history that will well repay study, with its facets of tumultuous war and scarcely less strenuous peace.

It is hoped that there will be a large gathering to hear Mr. Hurt's address. All those interested are invited. There will be a short musical program provided.

C. A. Jordan, aged 82, of Bowdoinham, Me., recently reshingled the roof of his own house.

Nervous Energy Is Limited

There is only so much energy in the human body. A few people have an abundance, but more have not enough. Hence the necessity of conserving vitality.

If wasted by mode of living, disease or worry there must be a reckoning, and trouble is sure to come. It may be headaches and weak, aching eyes; it may be nervous indigestion, or it may be merely lack of energy and ambition, and feelings of fatigue or helpfulness. Of course, sooner or later exhaustion of the nerves leads to prostration, paralysis or locomotor ataxia, but there is no need to let the trouble develop that far.

By using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can restore to the feeble, wasted nerve cells the energy they have lost. It will take some effort on your part to give up worry and anxiety, but you should realise your serious condition. Rest and use this great food cure and you are bound to improve in health and vigor.

Magic "Nerviline" Ends Stiff Neck, Lumbago

Any Curable Muscular or Joint Pain is Instantly Relieved by Nerviline.

GET TRIAL BOTTLE TO-DAY.

You don't have to wait all day to get the kink out of a stiff neck if you rub on Nerviline. And you don't need to go around complaining about lumbago any more. You can rub such things away very quickly with Nerviline. It's the grandest liniment, the quickest to penetrate, the speediest to ease muscular pain of any kind.

One twenty-five cent trial bottle of Nerviline will cure any attack of lumbago or lame back. This has been proved a thousand times, just as it was in the case of Mrs. E. J. Grayden of Caledonia, who writes:—"I wouldn't think of going to bed without knowing we had Nerviline in the house. I have used it for twenty odd years and appreciate its value as a family remedy more and more every day. If any of the children gets a stiff neck, Nerviline cures quickly. If it is sciatica, toothache, cold on the chest, sore throat, Nerviline is always my standby. My husband once cured himself of a frightful attack of lumbago by Nerviline, and for a hundred ailments that turn up in a large family Nerviline is by far the best thing to have about you."

THINKS UNIVERSITY TOWN IS IN NEED OF SOME POLICEWOMEN

London, Jan. 7.—Will Cambridge be the first town in Great Britain to appoint a policewoman?

Canada, America, Germany, and Norway already employ her services, and now Cambridge is seriously discussing the appointment of a woman to the local police force.

Should this innovation be made it will be largely due to the work of Lady Darwin, the wife of Sir George Howard Darwin, professor at Cambridge, and a son of Charles Darwin. She is a firm believer in the policewoman and she has just been studying her work in America.

"As the result of the study I made in Los Angeles I am strongly in favor of such officials in this country," she said today.

"We women who live in Cambridge would welcome the appointment of a woman police officer. We know the difficulties of keeping order on the river, the commons and in the streets. Cambridge was the first town in England to establish a dental clinic; why should she not lead the way in introducing the English policewoman?"

These are Lady Darwin's views on the work and scope of the policewoman in America:

"She can do good work in connection with rules limiting the freedom of the young in the streets at night and in places of amusement.

"The policewoman can assist women in the police courts, and not only detect crime, but prevent it.

"She can follow up false advertisements calculated to lure away young girls by promises of work."

SHAKE MY BONES, BUT HERE IS SOME TANGO. IN AN ICE COLD POOL

New York, Jan. 7.—Some folks say that the tango is the greatest dance of the day. Others favor the turkey trot and the bunny hug.

They are all wrong. The greatest of them all in that line is the popular lunge. All you need to go through this is a constitution that will stand your jumping into a tank where the ice is beginning to coat the surface.

Silver King, the dancing polar bear of the New York Zoological park, discovered the new dance, and immediately started to show Matilda, his partner, how the new fad had taken hold on him. For a time Matilda liked dancing and waltzed, tangoed and bunny hugged around the cage; but when Silver King wanted to show her his latest steps in the tank she was not so enthusiastic.

Sometimes, however, Matilda wants to talk with Mrs. Blinky, the Alaskan brown bear in the next cage, so, when Silver King decides it is time for another dance, she does not always agree with him. Silver is capable, however, of running his own home, and Matilda gets smoked head over heels around the den until the tank is reached, and there does a dance that comes up to her mate's satisfaction or gets her head ducked under water until she is ready to act as a real, nice polar bear waltzer should.

Sometimes Silver King has to use his teeth, as well as his paws, on Matilda to make her dance, but after a while he gets her dancing in a way that satisfies him, and then he is happy. Since he took up dancing he is the best natured polar bear in the Bronx animal collection.

Lon Bloom, of Hardisty, is the proud owner of a cat that takes a dog's place in the hunt and is of greater value than most dogs for that purpose.

"The cat," says Mr. Bloom, "will follow by my side for miles. When he sees a rabbit he will squat down close to the ground and flash his tail from side to side until I shoot, and then like a flash, he makes for the rabbit, seldom failing to get it by the neck and holding it until I get to him.

"The cat will ride on the horse to the hunting ground. After the rabbits are loaded on the horse he will take his seat on the game bag and ride home.

"Should a rabbit be wounded he will take the scent like a dog, only he is much more skilful than the average dog.

"This remarkable cat is equally good for partridge and when he sees the gun he mews and scampers with delight. He weights 18 pounds and woe betide the dog who insults him."

In India, we are told, the cat has long been utilized for hunting, but it has remained for Mr. Bloom to demonstrate his value as a sportsman.

Right Sort of Schoolmarm

"Too much sympathy is misplaced," says the Atchison Globe. "An Atchison man lately expressed concern because a young lady school teacher had as many as 46 little pupils in her room to discipline and worry over. 'Why, I wouldn't part with a single one' was her indignant answer, and her eyes were actually tearful."

Daily Fashion Talks

BY MAY MANTON

WITH TRIMMING OF THE FASHIONABLE PLAID

PLAID as trimming makes one of the features of late fashions. This frock is a very pretty one of the useful sort. The serge is a dark shade of blue but brighter than navy, and the plaid is most effective against its background. There is a three-piece skirt and a blouse with elongated shoulders which are joined at the waist line. Linen would be charming made in this way with trimming of all-over embroidery or of white if the frock is colored, or colored if the frock is white. Pique too is pretty for such a model and the lighter materials, such as French ginghams are in every way suited to the design. There are some new silk and wool crêpes that make very pretty dresses for girls and one of these could be trimmed with silk or with satin to be most attractive. The arrangement of the wide girdle and sash is a pretty and a fashionable one but a belt is quite appropriate for the frock and any belt or girdle can be used. Wide belts of suède are liked and some girls think black patent leather gives the smartest touch to the colored frock, especially when the frock is made of washable material.

DESIGN BY MAY MANTON.

For the 12 year size, the dress will require 4¼ yds. of material 27, 3¾ yds. 36, 2¾ yds. 44 in. wide, with ¾ yd. 27 in. wide for trimming, 2 yds. for the bias sash and girdle.

The May Manton pattern of the dress 7789 is cut in sizes for girls from 10 to 14 years of age. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

7789 Girl's Costume, 10 to 14 yrs.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA COMING

All musicians will learn with deep gratification that it has been found possible to make arrangements with the Calgary Symphony Orchestra by which that brilliant body of professional musicans will give a couple of recitals in the McDougall auditorium on Tuesday next. Competent critics have described the orchestra as one of the best in Canada today and music lovers and the public generally will experience one of the greatest treats that the city has ever had offered it. The program is a most artistic conception and will include selections from Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Grieg and Wagner. HENRY E. DIXEY AT THE MONARCH FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Chelsea 7750" is an original detective play, and in it Mr. Dixey gives remarkable characterization of Detective Kirby. In this role the star is provided with a strong and novel part, and a battle of wits occurs between him and the gang of counterfeiters, whose trail he follows. A dictograph plays an important part in the story, and the mechanical spy is instrumental in fixing the certainty of the counterfeiters' guilt.

There is a strong human note when Prof. Gimble, the master mind of the criminals, whose son, Detective Kirby, has succeeded in jailing for twenty years, gets the detective's daughter in his power and threatens to repay her for the long sentence meted out to his son. It is here that the telephone is called into play. Surreptitiously and skillfully the detective's daughter manages to lift the receiver off the telephone in the counterfeiters' den, and while she argues her innocence, shouts her father's number into the telephone. Then, by means of a signal code of pencil taps, she communicates to her father that she is in danger, but before she can inform him of the address the receiver is discovered removed from the hook, and she is abruptly shut off by the professor. A series of heart-breaking efforts on the part of the detective to discover her whereabouts ensues, culminated by a complete and thrilling victory over the criminals.

Mr. Dixey is ably supported by Laura Sawyer and House Peters, and the entire production was directed by Daniel Frohman. It is really a remarkable presentation, and the fact that such an eminent star as Henry E. Dixey plays the stellar role is sufficient to stamp the picture as a good one.

May Soon be Severed.

Paris, Jan. 7.—The "Siamese twins," Madeleine and Suzanne, were exhibited at the academy of medicine yesterday by Dr. Lefellatre. Their general condition is excellent and Dr. Lefellatre hopes that they may soon be strong enough to stand a severing operation. He is now convinced that the girls possess physical, physiological and psychic duality.

"MONEY'S MERCILESS MIGHT" BEING SHOWN AT THE BIJOU THEATRE

Money has played its tremendous force in a multitude of the affairs of man in this modern day. It has manifestly bought offices of political power, it has been used perniciously by conscienceless corruptionists to force through selfish legislation, it has made to build big business and its great power has been used to unmake competitive business, but perhaps one of its most notorious uses has been in the buying or trading of wives and husbands, the bartering of a title for that of a pot of gold, or the selling by a necessary woman of her heart to a life of contemplated luxury and ease.

A moving picture film is being shown at the Bijou theatre for today and tomorrow that vividly pictures how this game is being played. It shows how the sacred mutual love of two sweethearts is forced apart by this grim monster money, of how the girl's affections for the love of her heart is dampened by the temptations of another whose lure is a personal fortune and then is won by the might of these money bags.

"Money's Merciless Might" is the title of the subject. It is a master production, developing a topic of world-wide intimate interest.

The picture is in four large reels and abounds in wonderful scenic effects in addition to touching on a subject of such general importance, there is pictured as a part of the story an airship disaster, showing an aeroplane in mid air, in full blaze. The beautiful scenery is of America and the French Riviera.

The management of the Bijou has been watchful for a film offering of this merit and it is a genuine treat to be given the opportunity to see a picture that so powerfully and realistically develops a theme as it is here treated. "Money's Merciless Might" will be the feature for today and Thursday at the Bijou only.

ZENA KEEFE AND COLLEGE BOYS CLASSY IN THEIR MUSICAL PLAY

"Something classy" is the verdict of those who have seen Zena Keefe and her college boys in the musical play, "College Town," which is being presented at the Pantages.

Miss Keefe's acting is very charming and graceful. This is not to be wondered at when one remembers the length of time that she has been posing for the Vitagraph Film Co. The college boys are very real and to hear their college yells and songs almost causes one to join in the whooping.

Among the attractions are also to be found Clarke and Lewis, the "Salesman and the Village Belle." Miss Lewis fills her part well as the innocent village girl who is, as usual, stung by the drummer.

Hughes Musical Trio, who present a variety of songs on a number of instruments are very clever. The class of music which they present is mostly classical, with a few ragtimes thrown in.

"O, Canada" is being played at the beginning of each performance.

KING BAGGOT AT THE MONARCH TODAY AND TOMORROW

The Monarch is offering today and tomorrow a two-part detective story, featuring King Baggot.

King Baggot is one of the screen's most popular and talented leading men and he has selected upon a series of detective stories that promise to eclipse any like series yet attempted. Before starting on these plays, Mr. Baggot, according to his usual custom, spent much time in thoroughly studying the science that has been perfected in tracing down various kinds of lawbreakers. With the aim of making his stories up-to-the-minute in tone, he sought the latest and most improved discoveries in the scientific world which might be applied in any detective case.

Besides giving to the present picture his magnetic personality he has furnished a story of remarkable merits. It was in the making of this picture that Mr. Baggot and his assistant, Frank Smith, narrowly escaped death when a bank, under which they were working in New Jersey, caved in. The tunnel scenes, that were made at this time form one of the novel features in the play. One is kept guessing every instant—there is suspense and grip and mystery and, what is more, there is a delightful romance running through it all that finds solution at the end.

Caleb Jarvis, a mysterious old grouch, has been jilted in his youth by a young girl. Since that time he has lived the life of a recluse in a small village, shunned and despised by everyone. One day, as the postman comes to his house to deliver a letter he discovers the door open, and, getting no response to his repeated knocks, he enters and finds Caleb murdered, slain with the assassin's revolver near him. He immediately summons assistance, but Caleb is apparently beyond all help. The county prosecutor leaves two policemen to guard the body, and seeks the help of King, the detective, to find out who committed the crime. When King arrives the body has mysteriously disappeared, although the watchers have not stirred from the room in which it lay.

King orders them from the house and starts in his investigation. He discovers a picture on the wall of the Heirloom that has a peephole in it, and in attempting to make a closer investigation, accidentally touches on a spring that releases a trap door in the lounge that he is standing on, and it precipitates him into an underground tunnel, which comes out of a fireplace in the next room, and finds that Jarvis has been hiding there and has not been killed at all. Jarvis, seeing that he is discovered, places a bomb in the tunnel with a short fuse, but finds, after he has lit it, that King has dashed down the hearth and escape is impossible. The bomb explodes and kills Jarvis, but he lives long enough to confess the following remarkable story: One day, as he is walking down the village street, he met a girl who was the exact counterpart of the one who had jilted him years ago. He hurried to the city and found out through King, the detective, that this girl was the daughter of his former sweetheart, Nellie Saunders. On reaching home he planned that he would invite her to call on him a few minutes before it was time for the final man to make his rounds, and pretend that he had been murdered, and so throw the blame of the crime on her. The prosecutor had advertised for a stenographer, and Nellie had come to the village in answer to it. It was in the case of love at first sight with them, and when King cleared the clouds from their path the inference leaves one to suppose that marriage bells will soon be chiming.

Women Attend Bad Plays

It is strange that women are in the majority in the attendance on plays suggestive of evil. I was ashamed to read that women, representing some of the most influential associations of my sex, found nothing offensive in the characters or the lines of "The Fight," which was tolerated in New York for only a brief period writes Kathleen Clifford in Weekly. Must women who patronize questionable plays do so out of curiosity. But familiarity breeds contempt. It is apt to dull the voice of conscience and lessen scruples of the old-fashioned kind. Of course we live in an age that is called progressive, and women are doing things that were never thought of before the days of the circus aspect. I believe in giving my sex all the latitude consistent with the maintenance of superior virtues, but the line can be drawn where the stage lifts the curtain on immorality so gross that it cannot benefit her nor be apologized for.

Stiles Now Fit Skirts

London, Jan. 7.—Hobble skirts interfere with the graceful climbing of styles.

It was stated at a meeting of the Hockey (Essex) Parish Council that the styles in that district are largely used and that women who wear the narrow skirts so fashionable now have great trouble in getting over them.

The Council debated the matter with becoming seriousness and ultimately decided to come to the aid of the fashionable dwellers of their district by inserting another step in the styles and so making the climb less steep.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION THEME OF PHOTO-PLAY AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Corruption in politics has afflicted almost every large city, the pernicious influence of the grafters, of the "Jacks in Office," and rascals in power that prey on the municipalities and governments, is a mischief that seems hardly possible to escape from.

With a timely subject as the rascality of government grafters exposed, and spiced with a good love story that is logically connected with it, can a more interesting motion picture film be presented as a modern day subject? Such a film production is "The Invisible Government," a two-reel picture heading the program at the beautiful Empress theatre for today and tomorrow.

The Invisible Government" is a picture strong enough to sway and leave its good effects upon a government and to leave its impress of good on the people of a nation. A more effective sermon on such an important text as this film develops can hardly be driven home than is shown on the screen at the Empress. It tells of the political leader of the town circle who, entrenched in authority, conduct for their greedy selfish ends the power of a free city government that they have succeeded in grasping for themselves. Then is pictured the running down and the exposure of "the boss" who proves to be the man on the inside, and cleverly traps the old offenders, who have long masked under the cloaks of respectability.

The cast is a very capable one, especially selected to impersonate the many strong characters in the play.

WORKING TO LOWER INSURANCE RATES

Board of Trade Has So Far Secured a Removal of the Surcharge.

MANY PROBLEMS TO SOLVE

Annual Loss by Fire in United States and Canada is $200,000,000.

The Edmonton board of trade proposes to work along lines that will eventually secure the reduction of the insurance rates. The committee appointed some time ago to take up this matter has only been successful in having the surcharge removed. Now their duties have been given a wider scope and they will plan ways and means that will eventually reach the desired end.

The Board of trade realizes that there are many matters which may be investigated and many problems that may be solved before the rates are materially lowered, and to this end this committee proposes to work. It is, of course, quite important for the citizens to assist in whatever way they can, as this is a matter of vital importance to every citizen of Edmonton.

In discussing the matter this morning, Secretary Fletcher stated that he has just been noting that the annual loss in the United States and Canada as the result of fire amounts to $250,-000,000; figured down, this means $30,000 an hour, or $500 every minute. He believes that at least nine-tenths of this immense sum might be saved if the proper care is taken on the part of the citizens to prevent fire. The loss per capita in the United States and Canada is ten times as great as it is in most European cities, although we are away ahead of these places in the matter of modern fire fighting apparatus. There are many important cities in the old country, he states, where they still use hand pumps, but they believe in prevention rather than cure.

Secretary Fisher stated further that the argument that fire loss is usually covered with insurance does not necessarily apply. Indeed he claims that the loss is even greater because, added to this enormous sum, there should be the profits and operating expenses of all the insurance companies who are existing as a result. In the end it all must be borne by the citizens and for this reason it is a matter which should be taken seriously by the citizens and an honest effort made to better conditions. Then it will be possible to go to the underwriters and insist on them lowering the rates because the conditions obtaining demand it.

The committee appointed by the board of trade will gather such information along this line as they think will be of assistance in bringing this matter properly to the attention of the public. They will report from time to time to the board and in this way it is hoped that their work will have the effect that is contemplated.

MANY VISITORS CALL UPON MAYOR McNAMARA ON VARIOUS ERRANDS

Many citizens called to see Mayor McNamara this morning. From the time he arrived at his office at 10 o'clock until half past 11 there was a constant stream coming and going. All those who have business with the mayor are now referred to the office of his private secretary, where they are met by Mr. Walker, who arrages for the appointments.

One of the most important visitors this morning was W. J. Magrath, who withdrew from the field and allowed Mr. McNamara to put up an even battle with ex-Mayor Short. Mr. Mcgrath spent a considerable time with the mayor, but nothing was given out as to the nature of the conference.

As soon as he had met all those who were waiting for him, the mayor called the commissioners into his office together with C. L. Richardson and following this meeting the announcement was made that Mr. Richardson had been named as deputy finance commissioner.

OFFICER DEALY HAS A LIVELY CHASE AFTER FUGITIVE

Officer Dealy of the neglected children department had a lively chase for some hours, when 14-year-old John Grosky escaped from the shelter a couple of days ago.

hTe boy, his father and mother and two sisters were being held by the department awaiting deportation and while the janitor had his back turned the lad slipped under the fence and escaped. The hole was so small that the janitor had to go through the building to reach the street. By the time that he was outside the fugitive was out of sight.

He was traced to the river, where he crossed over on the ice, and was lost for some time in the bush. Later the officer heard that the boy was back on the north side of the river, and calling on some friends of the lad's, he learned that he had gone to Alberta avenue.

After searching Alberta avenue for some time the officer at last saw the boy and at once gave chase, the lad tried to scale a wall ,but missed his hold and tumbled backwards and was then caught by Mr. Dealy.

CONCERT BY CALGARY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IS A POPULAR IDEA

Frank Wrigley, organist of Knox church, Calgary, arrived in Edmonton yesterday and is staying with Dr. W. Condell, 537 Fifth street. Mr. Wrigley has come to this city as the representative of the Calgary Symphony Orchestra in connection with the proposed concert in the McDougall auditorium next Tuesday evening.

The organization which Mr. Wrigley represents is dependent entirely on private subscriptions from the music loving public of Calgary and if the fifty-five musicians who make up the orchestra come to Edmonton for next Tuesday's concert it will be the result of Mr. Wrigley's successful call for subscriptions from the citizens of Edmonton.

"It is rather an expensive undertaking," said Mr. Wrigley to the Capital, "to bring fifty-five men and an artiste of the calibre of Marie Caslova from Calgary to Edmonton. We are bringing the orchestra without any guarantee from any local organization, and solely at our own risk, in the confidence, however, that the people of Edmonton will be pleased to share the appreciation shown by Calgary in supporting the splendid results obtained under the directorship of Max Weil."

Within a few hours of his arrival Mr. Wrigley had secured over a hundred subscriptions. He will be in the city all day today and is in hopes that the good start made yesterday will be even improved on today.

TRAFFIC ON WESTERN END OF THE G.T.P. BECOMES IMPORTANT

The temporary winter time card of the Grand Trunk Pacific, which is now in effect, is indicative of the importance from a traffic standpoint of the western end of the line, of which Edmonton is the centre. While trains 3 and 4, between Winnipeg and Watrous, have been taken off for two or three months, the Edson local is kept on. This leaves the territory west of Edmonton the only part of the system which is served by two passenger trains each way daily. Even between Regina and Winnipeg there is only one train per day, the one which formerly connected with No. 1 at Melville being continued.

On the new time table No. 1 does local work between Winnipeg and Watrous, thus lengthening the schedule, so that it reaches Edmonton at 9.50 p.m. instead of 8.30. This necessitated changing the leaving time of the train west from 9.30 to 10.45. The arriving time of the train from the west, 8.30 a.m., and the leaving time of No. 1 from Edmonton, 9.30 a.m., remain unchanged, but the Tofield-Camrose-Mirror train leaves now at 6.25 instead of 4.50, in order to make connections with No. 1 at Tofield. The Edmonton-Edson local runs on the former schedule, leaving the city at five p.m. and arriving at one o'clock.

It is expected that in March or April, when the spring time card comes into effect, two trains will be put on again between Winnipeg and Edmonton, and at least one daily between Edmonton and Calgary. By that time it is also certain that on the main line west the line will be in operation for both freight and passenger traffic at least as far as Fort George.

QUALIFIED HOPE IS THE KEYNOTE AMONG DOCTORS

Condition of Sir James Whitney Shows Signs of Slight Improvement.

RETURN TO POLITICAL DUTIES IS UNCERTAIN

Premier of Saskatchewan's Return of Health After Breakdown Quoted.

New York, Jan. 7.—Qualified hopefulness was the keynote this morning of the attitude of those attending Sir Jas. Whitney, after another night of illigent watchfulness at his bedside at the Manhattan hotel here. Dr. Pyne, who has served the premier in the dual role of political confrere and medical adviser in the trying time, precipitated by his collapse from heart trouble on Sunday, was of the opinion last night that the condition of his patient had shown a slight, but not necessarily permanent improvement, and that he was holding his own.

There was, though, an absence of the look of anxiety which the faces of the premier's party have born since Sunday.

When asked if the rumor that Sir James' political career as prime minister of Ontario was ended on account of the weakened effects of his present attacks, if he recovered, and the likelihood of his returning with a sudden and fatal result at any time on account of the strenuous life he would be compelled to lead, Dr. Payne said that no authoritive statement one way or the other could be issued until the outcome of the premier's present illness was known. Any suspicion that might have arisen from the first reports of the illness, he continued, must naturally be unconfirmed, in the meantime.

As though to endorse the optimism of Sir James' party who hope to see the premier back as of old, at the head of his followers in the Ontario legislature at Toronto, the case of Hon. Walter Scott, premier of Saskatchewan, who returned to his old position after his friends and opponents alike had pronounced him politically dead, was given a peculiarly appropriate point by the appearance, hale and hearty, of Mr. Scott himself among the Canadians in New York who came to enquire after the condition of Sir James. Mr. Scott was in New York, and heard of the sickness of Sir James and hastened to express to Lady Whitney and Dr. Payne the hope that the premier would enjoy a speedy recovery. Dr. Payne pointed out in his discussion about the probability of Sir James' return to his work, that Mr. Scott's case provided virtually a paralled case. Mr. Scott suffered from heart and other troubles and was away from his office travelling for his health, in the United States for many months. Today Mr. Scott was a new man and could truthfully say that he was "stronger than ever"

Return Home Uncertain.

New York, Jan. 7.—While the favorable turn in Sir Jame's illness last night revived the hopes that he could return to Toronto in the near future, Dr. Payne declined to set even a contingent date for the removal. Sir James himself was anxious to get home.

Indeed the chief trouble of those attending on Sir James now is to convince him that though to all appearances his condition is slightly improved, such is the condition of his illness that the slightest excitement would completely undermind the improvement. Unfortunately with the return of complete consciousness came the return of the premier's love of labor and interest in the affairs of the province of Ontario, and though he was requested by Dr. Payne and Lady Whitney to forget his work, he persisted in his enquiries. Repeated assurances that everything was "all right" seemed to satisfy him, though Dr. Payne feared that the premier's inquiries impertusity would not long remain quiescent and that if not controlled would have a most deterious affect. Sir James' case, remarked upon by Dr. Payne, was the steady manner in which his patient was able to take nourishment which was assisting him to build up his strength again.

ECZEMA.

All skin diseases such as Eczema, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Rash, Boils, Pimples, and Itching Skin Eruptions, are always caused from the blood being in a bad condition, and it is impossible to eradicate them from the system unless you put your blood into good shape. This you can very easily do without the slightest trouble by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

It drives out all the humor from the blood, and makes it pure and rich, and not only are the unsightly diseases removed, and a bright clean complexion produced, but the entire system is renovated and invigorated at the same time.

Mrs. G. A. Day, Somerville, N.B., writes:—"Last spring I had a bad attack of Eczema. I tried several patent medicines as well as the medicine of a physician, but they seemed to make the disease worse. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters and I did so with the result that in two weeks time the sores began to disappear. I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles and they worked a complete cure."

LATE MARKETS

Winnipeg Grain.

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—Wheat and flax firmed up today, but oats and corn, though steady, have apparently a weak undertone. Trade was pretty well confined to th eprofessional element, and showed no great activity. Cash demand is fair and exporters are picking up a little stuff for all rail shipment. Offerings are, however, very light.

Receipts today are 151 cars inspected and 135 in sight.

Minneapolis receipts were 229 cars, Duluth 44 cars and Chicago 70 cars. Deliveries through the clearing house were: Wheat 23,000 bushels, oats 50,000 bushels, flax 12,000 bushels.

The market later showed firmness on account of prices here and in St. Louis being virtually at an export basis for hard wheat. The close was steady, 1/4 to 3/8 to 1/2 above last night.

Liverpool Wheat.

Liverpool, Jan. 7.—(Broomhall.)—Easy American cables yesterday and the pressure at Winnipeg caused moderate realizing at the opening, and values declined. Later there wasa further recession, with the undertone easy. Plate ofefrs are easier, with freer Manitoba offers and a less active general demand and the weakness in corn is afefcting sentiment. Australia has a good exportable surpius and the Argentine shipments of new crops is causing buyers to hold off.

Glasgow Cattle.

Glasgow, Jan. 7.—Watson and Btachelor, cattle importers, report moderate supplies at the following quotations: Scotch steers, 15 1/2 to 17; Irish, 13 to 15 3/4; and bulls, 12 1/2 to 14.

Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 7.—Finding the North Carolina board of control backing Charles Neserve, president of Shaw University in the dismissal of a student who married against the rules during the holidays, 250 male students left college late yesterday.

The students refused to attend class Friday or to recognize Presidnt Meserve and faculty members. They were given until yesterday to apply for re-instatement.

Yesterday they were automatically expelled. President Meserve said tonight a number have asked for reinstatement.

BEST ROUTE IS BY YELLOW HEAD

Discovered by Sir Sandford Fleming Before G.T.P. or C.N.R.'s Time.

STEEL IS NEARING JASPER

Much Good Farming Land in British Columbia Line of C.N.R.

It may be news to many that the best transcontinental railway survey was completed across Canada way back in the days before the G.T.P. or C.N.R. were even thought of—in fact, when they were just thinking of the C.P.R.

This, however, is the opinion of P. H. Palmer, of Palmer Brothers & Henning, the contractors who are doing a large part of the Canadian Northern work between here and the coast. Mr. Palmer was at the Royal George yesterday, and last night left on the G.T.P. for the end of the C.N. grade.

He says that Sir Sandford Fleming surveyed a route across the prairies and through the mountains for the C.P.R., which, however, was not used by the pioneer Canadian transcontinental, and that this survey followed the line of easiest grades yet discovered through the Rockies. The Canadian Northern has chosen practically the same route all the way, C.N.R. engineers having come across the old survey stakes time and time again, and Mr. Palmer states that when this road is completed through to the coast this year it will be the finest and most up-to-date in America, as far as its route is concerned.

C.N.R. steel is now about five miles from Jasper, which is the second divisional point on the G.T.P. west of Edmonton, and was formerly known as Fitzhugh. The grade is as far as Albreda Summit, near where the line turns south along the North Thompson river in the direction of Kamloops. On the Pacific end, the steel is laid from the coast to Kamloops and about 100 miles beyond. Mr. Palmer's firm had the contract for part of that end also. One of the most costly pieces of construction was the big tunnel at Moose lake, which is about mile 29 in B. C.

Asked as to the character of the country traversed by the C.N.R. in British Columbia, Mr. Palmer stated that there was much good agricultural land, particularly along the Canoe river, also considerable timber along the North Thompson. It has not been prospected as yet to any extent for minerals, but there are rich deposits of mica and some gold, he stated.

Mr. Palmer believes that the C.P.R. will shortly build through the Yellowhead pass in order to compete successfully with its two younger rivals. He is also of the opinion that there will be several lines through the Rockies north of the Yellowhead. "The Peace River and Mackenzie River countries," he says, "are larger and even richer in natural resources than Central Alberta. We will be building new roads for years and years yet through that country and on to the north Pacific coast."

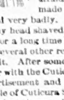
HAIR CAME OUT BY HANDFULS

With Dandruff and Itching Scalp. Scalp Covered with Small Pimples. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Now No Trouble At All.

593 Jane St., Toronto, Ont.—"I was first troubled with my hair getting brittle and later dandruff and itching scalp. I was afraid to comb my hair as it came out by handfuls and the itching was so severe I was miserable. The trouble kept me from sleeping. My scalp was covered with small pimples which seemed to run into one another and form a scab. The dandruff was so bad I was afraid to comb my hair as it made it show so plainly. It looked very badly. I was thinking of having my head shaved.



"For a long time I tried ——, ——, —— and several other remedies but they did not cure it. After some months I picked up a paper with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent right away for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. On using just the sample my trouble was better. I used six or eight boxes of the Cuticura Ointment also the Cuticura Soap and my scalp healed, the itching stopped and my hair came in quite thick and now I have no trouble at all." (Signed) Mrs. H. Binger, May 27, 1913.

It costs nothing to learn how pure, sweet, effective and satisfying Cuticura Soap and Ointment are in the treatment of poor complexions, red, rough hands, itching scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, because you need not buy them until you try them. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book. Send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

Child Had Bronchitis

Once people get acquainted with the wonderful control which Dr. Chases' Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine exerts over bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and colds it is not easy to persuade them that anything else is "Just as good." This is why the imitators never get very far.

In 1902 Mrs. Eugene Iler, King street, Truro, N.S., wrote as follows:

"From an infant one of my children was troubled with bronchitis, and the least cold would aggrevate the trouble. We could not get anything to help him, and were often greatly alarmed. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a treatment for bronchitis, we used it, and are glad to state that it effected a complete cure. If any of the children take a cold or cough I give this medicine, and have never known it to fail to bring relief."

Mrs. Iler now writes that she has since proven this medicine to be a cure for whooping cough, and would not be without it in the house.

PROWLS ABOUT LANES AT HOUR OF MIDNIGHT AND GETS THIRTY DAYS

Henry Venetta was sentenced to 30 days imprisonment on a charge of vagrancy. Venetta was arrested by Constable O'Brien last night while patrolling the lanes, he asked the accused what he was doing in the lane at that hour of the night and as he was unable to give a satisfactory reason he was conducted to the lock-up. This morning he stated to the magistrate that he had been out of work for three weeks and was unable to get any, further he stated that he had been to the theatre last night and was on his way home when he was arrested. The magistrate did not believe his story and therefore handed him the sentence. About four weeks ago Venetta was allowed out on suspended sentence, by Magistrate Massie on a charge of stealing some bottles from the rear of a hotel.

Mark Kuluck, who had been charged with assaulting John Gill was dismissed this morning by Magistrate Jennings. The evidence was so contradictory that the magistrate was unable to find out who really was to blame. The costs of the action will have to be paid by the complainent.

LABOR HAS ITS INNINGS IN THE STRIKE INQUIRY

Representatives of Organization Take Up Story of the Conflict.

TELL OF GUNMEN HIRED BY OPERATORS

Evidence Taken as to Action of National Guardsmen and Sheriffs.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 7.—Organized labor had its inning today in the investigation which Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris is making into the causes and conditions of the strike of the Copper miners in Northern Michigan.

Officials of the Western Federation of Miners and many of the men on strike expected to appear before the governor and tell their version of the prolonged strike. They planned to take up the story of the conflict where it had been dropped last night by the county authorities of the strike zone. Tomorrow may see the conclusion of the investigation which should close with a decision and settlement of the trouble.

At yesterday's investigation Governor Ferris was given data on the number of "gunmen" employed by the operators and the number of strike breakers that had been imported into the Copper country since the beginning of the strike last summer. Actions of national guardsmen and deputy sheriffs also were questioned and an attempt made to determine the actual number of men who had quit work.

Lon Bloom, of Hardisty, is the proud owner of a cat that takes a dog's place in the hunt and is of greater value than most dogs for that purpose.

"The cat," says Mr. Bloom, "will follow by my side for miles. When he sees a rabbit he will squat down close to the ground and flash his tail from side to side until I shoot, and then like a flash, he makes for the rabbit, seldom failing to get it by the neck and holding it until I get to him.

"The cat will ride on the horse to the hunting ground. After the rabbits are loaded on the horse he will take his seat on the game bag and ride home.

"Should a rabbit be wounded he will take the scent like a dog, only he is much more skilful than the average dog.

"This remarkable cat is equally good for partridge and when he sees the gun he mews and scampers with delight. He weighs 15 pounds and won betide the dog who insults him."

In India, we are told, the cat has long been utilized for hunting, but it has remained for Mr. Bloom to demonstrate his value as a sportsman.

Right Sort of Schoolmarm

"Too much sympathy is misplaced," says the Atchison Globe. Daily Fashion Talks

WITH TRIMMING OF THE FASHIONABLE PLAID

PLAID as trimming makes one of the features of late fashions. This frock is a very pretty one of the useful sort. The serge is a dark shade of blue but brighter than navy, and the plaid is most effective against its background. There is a three-piece skirt and a blouse with elongated shoulders which are joined at the waist line. Linen would be charming made in this way with trimming of all-over embroidery or of white it the frock is colored, or colored if the frock is white. Piqué too is pretty for such a model and the lighter materials, such as French gingham, are in every way suited to the design. There are some new silk and wool crêpes that make very pretty dresses for girls and one of these could be trimmed with silk or with satin to be most attractive. The arrangement of the wide girdle and sash is a pretty and a fashionable one but a belt is quite as appropriate for the frock and any belt or girdle can be used. Wide belts of suede are liked and some girls think black patent leather gives the smartest touch to the colored frock, especially when the frock is made of washable material.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA COMING

All musicians will learn with deep gratification that it has been found possible to make arrangements with the Calgary Symphony Orchestra by which that brilliant body of professional musicans will give a couple of recitals in the McDougall auditorium on Tuesday next. The program is a most artistic conception and will include selections from Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Grieg and Wagner. The soloist for the occasion will be Miss Marie Caslova, a young violinist of considerable repute from St. Louis and who is very highly spoken of by the press. The plan of the auditorium will be ready immediately and the place of the seat sale will be duly announced.

Theatres and Picture Shows

HENRY E. DIXEY AT THE MONARCH FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Chelsea 7750" is an original detective play, and in it Mr. Dixey gives remarkable characterization of Detective Kirby. In this role the star is provided with a strong and novel part, and a battle of wits occurs between him and the gang of counterfeiters, whose trail he follows. A dictograph plays an important part in the story, and the mechanical spy is instrumental in fixing the certainty of the counterfeiters' guilt.

There is a strong human note when Prof. Gimble, the master mind of the criminals, whose son, Detective Kirby, has succeeded in jailing for twenty years, gets the detective's daughter in his power and threatens to repay her for the long sentence meted out to his son. It is here that the telephone is called into play. Surreptitiously and skillfully the detective's daughter manages to lift the receiver off the telephone in the counterfeiters' den, and while she argues her innocence, shouts her father's number into the telephone. Then, by means of a signal code of pencil taps, she communicates to her father that she is in danger, but before she can inform him of the address the receiver is discovered removed from the hook, and she is abruptly shut off by the professor. A series of heart-breaking efforts on the part of the detective to discover her whereabouts ensues, culminated by a complete and thrilling victory over the criminals.

Mr. Dixey is ably supported by Laura Sawyer and Hobart Peters, and the entire production was directed by Daniel Frohman. It is really a remarkable presentation, and the fact that such an eminent star as Henry E. Dixey plays the stellar role is sufficient to stamp the picture as a good one.

May Soon be Severed.

Paris, Jan. 7.—The "Siamese twins," Madeleine and Suzanne, were exhibited at the academy of medicine yesterday by Dr. Lefebiatre. Their general condition is excellent and Dr. Lefebiatre hopes that they may soon be strong enough to stand a severing operation. He is now convinced that the girls possess physical, physiological and psychic duality.

"MONEY'S MERCILESS MIGHT" BEING SHOWN AT THE BIJOU THEATRE

Money has played its tremendous force in a multitude of the affairs of man in this modern day. It has shamefully bought officers of political power, it has been used perniciously by conscienceless corruptionists to force through selfish legislation, it has made to build big business, and its great power has been used to unmake competitive business, but perhaps one of its most notorious uses has been in the buying or traffic of wives and husbands, the bartering of a title for that of a pot of gold, or the selling by a mercenary woman of her heart to a life of contemplated luxury and ease.

A motion picture film is being shown at the Bijou theatre for today and tomorrow that vividly pictures how this game is being played. It shows how the sweet mutual love of two sweethearts is forced apart by this grim monster money, of how the girl's affections for the love of her heart is dampened by the temptations of another whose store is a personal fortune and then is won by the might of these money bags.

"Money's Merciless Might" is the title of the subject. It is a master production, developing a topic of world-wide intimate interest.

The picture is in four large reels and abounds in wonderful scenic effects in addition to touching on a subject of such general importance, there is pictured as a part of the story an airship disaster, showing an aeroplane in mid air, in full blaze. The beautiful scenery is of America and the French Riviera.

The management of the Bijou has been watchful for a film offering of this merit and it is a genuine treat to be given the opportunity to see a picture that so powerfully and realistically develops a theme as it is here treated. "Money's Merciless Might" will be the feature for today and Thursday at the Bijou only.

ZENA KEEFE AND COLLEGE BOYS CLASSY IN THEIR MUSICAL PLAY

"Something classy" is the verdict of those who have seen Zena Keefe and her college boys in the musical play, "College Town," which is being presented at the Pantages.

Miss Keefe's acting is very charming and graceful. This is not to be wondered at when one remembers the length of time that she has been posing for the Vitagraph Film Co. The college boys are very real and to hear their college yells and songs almost causes one to join in the whooping.

Among the attractions are also to be found Clarke and Lewis, the "Salesman and the Village Belle." Miss Lewis fills her part well as the innocent village girl who is, as usual, stung by the drummer.

Hughes Musical Trio, who present a variety of songs on a number of instruments are very clever. The class of music which they present is mostly classical, with a few ragtimes thrown in.

"O, Canada" is being played at the beginning of each performance.

KING BAGGOT AT THE MONARCH TODAY AND TOMORROW

The Monarch is offering today and tomorrow a two-part detective story, featuring King Baggot.

King Bagrot is one of the screen's most popular and talented leading men and he has entered upon a series of detective stories that promise to eclipse any like series yet attempted. Before starting on these plays, Mr. Baggot, according to his usual custom, spent much time in thoroughly studying the science that has been perfected in tracing down various kinds of lawbreakers. With the aim of making his stories up-to-the-minute in tone, he sought the latest and most improved discoveries in the scientific world which might be applied in any detective case.

Besides giving to the present picture his magnificent ability he has furnished a story of remarkable merits. It was in the making of this picture that Mr. Baggot and his assistant, Frank Smith, narrowly escaped death when a bank, under which they were working in New Jersey, caved in. The tunnel scenes, that were made at this time form one of the novel features in the play. One is kept guessing every instant—there is suspense and grip and mystery and, what is more, there is a delightful romance running through it all that finds solution at the end.

Caleb Jarvis, a mysterious old grouch, has been jilted in his youth by a young girl. Since that time he has lived the life of a recluse in a village, shunned and despised by everyone. One day, as the postman comes to his house to deliver a letter he discovers the door open, and, getting no response to his repeated knocks, he enters and finds Caleb murdered, lying on a couch with the assassin's revolver near him. He immediately summons assistance, but Caleb is apparently past all help. The county prosecutor leaves two policemen to guard the body, and seeks the help of King, the detective, to find out who committed the crime. When king arrives the body has mysteriously disappeared, although the watchers have not stirred from the room in which it lay.

King orders them from the house and starts in his investigation. He discovers a picture on the wall of the lighthouse that has a peephole in it, and in attempting to make a closer investigation, accidentally touches on a spring that releases a trap door in the house that is standing on, and it precipitates him into an underground tunnel, which comes out of a fireplace in the next room, and finds that Jarvis has been hidmv there and has not been killed at all. Jarvis, seeing that he is discovered, places a bomb in the tunnel with a short fuse, but finds, after he has lit it, that King has nailed down the hearth and escape is impossible. The bomb explodes and kills Jarvis, but he lives long enough to confess the following remarkable story:

One day, when he was walking down the village street, he met a girl who was the exact counterpart of the one who had jilted him years ago. He hurried to the city and found out through King, the detective, that this girl was the daughter of his former sweetheart, Nellie Saunders. On reaching home he planned that he would invite her to call on him a few minutes before it was time for the mail man to make his rounds, and pretend that he had been murdered, and so throw the blame of the crime on her. The prosecutor had advertised for a stenographer, and Nellie had come to the village in answer to it. It was a case of love at first sight with them, and when King cleared the clouds from their path the inference leaves one to suppose that marriage bells will soon be chiming.

Women Attend Bad Plays

It is strange that women are in the majority in the attendance on plays suggestive of evil. I was ashamed to read that women, representing some of the most influential associations of my sex, found nothing offensive in the characters or the lines of "The Fight," which was tolerated in New York for only a brief period writes Kathleen Hills, in Leslie's Weekly. Most women who patronize questionable plays do so out of curiosity. But familiarity breeds contempt. It is apt to still the voice of conscience and lessen scruples of the most delicated kind. Of course we live in an age that is called progressive, and women are doing things that were never thought of before by the circumspect. I believe in seeing my self the latitude consistent with the maintenance of superior virtues, but the line can be drawn when the stage lifts the curtain on immorality so gross that it cannot benefit her nor be apologized for.

Stiles Now Fit Skirts

London, Jan. 7.—Hobble skirts interfere with the graceful climbing of styles.

It was stated at a meeting of the Hackney (Essex) Parish Council that the styles in that district are largely used and that women who wear the narrow skirts so fashionable now have great trouble in getting over them.

The Council debated the matter with becoming seriousness and ultimately decided to come to the aid of the fashionable dwellers of their district by inserting another step in the styles and so making the climb less steep.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION THEME OF PHOTO-PLAY AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Corruption in politics has afflicted almost every large city. The pernicious influence of the grafters, of the "Jacks in office," and rascals in power that prey on the municipalities and governments, is a mischief that seems hardly possible to escape from.

With a timely subject as the rascality of government grafters exposed, and spiced with a good love story that is logically conceted with it, can a more interesting motion picture film be presented as a modern day subject? Such a film production is "The Invisible Government," a two-reel picture heading the program at the beautiful Empress theatre for today and tomorrow.

"The Invisible Government" is a picture strong enough to sway and leave its good effects upon a government and to leave its impress of good on the people of a nation. A more effective sermon on such an important text as this film develops can hardly be driven home than is shown on the screen at the Empress. It tells of the political manipet of the inner circle who, entrenched in authority, conduct for their greedy selfish ends the power of a free city government that they have succeeded in grasping for themselves. Then is pictured the running down and the exposure street," who proves to be the man on the inside, and cleverly traps the old offenders, who have long masked under the cloaks of respectability.

The cast is a very capable one, especially selected to impersonate the many strong characters in the play.

WORKING TO LOWER INSURANCE RATES

Board of Trade Has So Far Secured a Removal of the Surcharge.

MANY PROBLEMS TO SOLVE

Annual Loss by Fire in United States and Canada is $200,000,000.

The Edmonton board of trade proposes to work along lines that will eventually secure the reduction of the insurance rates. The committee appointed some time ago to take up this matter has only been successful in having the surcharge removed. Now their duties have been given a wider scope and they will plan ways and means that will eventually reach the desired end.

The Board of trade realizes that there are many matters which may be investigated and many problems that may be solved before the rates are materially lowered, and to this end this committee proposes to work. It is, of course, quite important for the citizens to assist in whatever way they can, as this is a matter of vital importance to every citizen of Edmonton.

In discussing the matter this morning, Secretary Fletcher stated that he has just been noting that the annual loss in the United States and Canada as the result of fire amounts to $250,000,000; figured down, this means $30,000 an hour, or $500 every minute. He believes that at least nine-tenths of this immense sum might be saved if the proper care is taken on the part of the citizens to prevent fire. The loss per capita in the United States and Canada is ten times as great as it is in most European cities, although we are away ahead of thsee places in the matter of modern fire fighting apparatus. There are many important cities in the old country, he states, where they still use hand pumps, but they believe in prevention rather than cure.

Secretary Fisher stated further that the argument that fire loss is usually covered with insurance does not necessarily apply. Indeed he claims that the loss is even greater because, added to this enormous sum, there should be the profits and operating expenses of all the insurance companies who are existing as a result. In the end it all must be borne by the citizens and for this reason it is a matter which should be taken seriously by the citizens and an honest effort made to better conditions. Then it will be possible to go to the underwriters and insist on them lowering the rates because the conditions obtaining demand it.

The committee appointed by the board of trade will gather such information along this line as they think will be of assistance in bringing this matter properly to the attention of the public. They will report from time to time to the board and in this way it is hoped that their work will have the effect that is contemplated.

MANY VISITORS CALL UPON MAYOR McNAMARA ON VARIOUS ERRANDS

Many citizens called to see Mayor McNamara this morning. From the time he arrived at his office at 10 o'clock until half past 11 there was a constant stream coming and going. All those who have business with the mayor are now referred to the office of his private secretary, where they are met by Mr. Walker, who arrages for the appointments.

One of the most important visitors this morning was W. J. Magrath, who withdrew from the field and allowed Mr. McNamara to put up an even battle with ex-Mayor Short. Mr. Magrath spent a considerable time with the mayor, but nothing was given out as to the nature of the conference.

As soon as he had met all those who were waiting for him, the mayor called the commissioners into his office together with C. L. Richardson and following this meeting the announcement was made that Mr. Richardson had been named as deputy finance commissioner.

OFFICER DEALY HAS A LIVELY CHASE AFTER FUGITIVE

Officer Dealy of the neglected children department had a lively chase for some hours, when 14-year-old John Grosky escaped from the shelter a couple of days ago.

hTe boy, his father and mother and two sisters were being held by the department awaiting deportation and while the janitor had his back turned the lad slipped under the fence and escaped. The hole was so small that the janitor had to go through the building to reach the street. By the time that he was outside the fugitive was out of sight.

He was traced to the river, where he crossed over on the ice, and was lost for some time in the bush. Later the officer heard that the boy was back on the north side of the river, and calling on some friends of the lad's, he learned that he had gone to Alberta avenue.

After searching Alberta avenue for some time the officer at last saw the boy and at once gave chase, the lad tried to scale a wall ,but missed his hold and tumbled backwards and was then caught by Mr. Dealy.

CONCERT BY CALGARY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IS A POPULAR IDEA

Frank Wrigley, organist of Knox church, Calgary, arrived in Edmonton yesterday and is staying with Dr. W. Condell, 537 Fifth street. Mr. Wrigley has come to this city as the representative of the Calgary Symphony Orchestra in connection with the proposed concert in the McDougall auditorium next Tuesday evening.

The organization which Mr. Wrigley represents is dependent entirely on private subscriptions from the music loving public of Calgary and if the fifty-five musicians who make up the orchestra come to Edmonton for next Tuesday's concert it will be the result of Mr. Wrigley's successful call for subscriptions from the citizens of Edmonton.

"It is rather an expensive undertaking," said Mr. Wrigley to the Capital, "to bring fifty-five men and an artiste of the calibre of Marie Caslova from Calgary to Edmonton. We are bringing the orchestra without any guarantee from any local organization, and solely at our own risk, in the confidence, however, that the people of Edmonton will be pleased to share the appreciation shown by Calgary in supporting the splendid results obtained under the directorship of Max Weil."

Within a few hours of his arrival Mr. Wrigley had secured over a hundred subscriptions. He will be in the city all day today and is in hopes that the good start made yesterday will be even improved on today.

TRAFFIC ON WESTERN END OF THE G.T.P. BECOMES IMPORTANT

The temporary winter time card of the Grand Trunk Pacific, which is now in effect, is indicative of the importance from a traffic standpoint of the western end of the line, of which Edmonton is the centre. While trains 3 and 4, between Winnipeg and Watrous, have been taken off for two or three months, the Edson local is kept on. This leaves the territory west of Edmonton the only part of the system which is served by two passenger trains each way daily. Even between Regina and Winnipeg there is only one train per day, the one which formerly connected with No. 1 at Melville being continued.

On the new time table No. 1 does local work between Winnipeg and Watrous, thus lengthening the schedule, so that it reaches Edmonton at 9.50 p.m. instead of 8.30. This necessitated changing the leaving time of the train west from 9.30 to 10.45. The arriving time of the train from the west, 8.30 a.m., and the leaving time of No. 1 from Edmonton, 9.30 a.m., remain unchanged, but the Tofield-Camrose-Mirror train leaves now at 6.25 instead of 4.50, in order to make connections with No. 1 at Tofield. The Edmonton-Edson local runs on the former schedule, leaving the city at five p.m. and arriving at one o'clock.

It is expected that in March or April, when the spring time card comes into effect, two trains will be put on again between Winnipeg and Edmonton, and at least one daily between Edmonton and Calgary. By that time it is also certain that on the main line west the line will be in operation for both freight and passenger traffic at least as far as Fort George.

QUALIFIED HOPE IS THE KEYNOTE AMONG DOCTORS

Condition of Sir James Whitney Shows Signs of Slight Improvement.

RETURN TO POLITICAL DUTIES IS UNCERTAIN

Premier of Saskatchewan's Return of Health After Breakdown Quoted.

New York, Jan. 7.—Qualified hopefulness was the keynote this morning of the attitude of those attending Sir Jas Whitney, after another night of lligent watchfulness at his bedside at the Manhattan hotel here. Dr. Pyne, who has served the premier in the dual role of political confrere and medical adviser in the trying time, precipitated by his collapse from heart trouble on Sunday, was of the opinion last night that the condition of his patient had shown a slight, but not necessarily permanent improvement, and that he was holding his own.

There was, though, an absence of the look of anxiety which the faces of the premier's party have born since Sunday.

When asked if the rumor that Sir James' political career as prime minister of Ontario was ended on account of the weakened effects of his present attacks, if he recovered, and the likelihood of his returning with a sudden and fatal result at any time on account of the strenuous life he would be compelled to lead, Dr. Payne said that no authoritive statement one way or the other could be issued until the outcome of the premier's present illness was known. Any suspicion that might have arisen from the first reports of the illness, he continued, must naturally be unconfirmed, in the meantime.

As though to endorse the optimism of Sir James' party who hope to see the premier back as of old, at the head of his followers in the Ontario legislature at Toronto, the case of Hon. Walter Scott, premier of Saskatchewan, who returned to his old position after his friends and opponents alike had pronounced him politically dead, was given a peculiarly appropriate point by the appearance, hale and hearty, of Mr. Scott himself among the Canadians in New York who came to enquire after the condition of Sir James. Mr. Scott was in New York, and heard of the sickness of Sir James and hastened to express to Lady Whitney and Dr. Payne the hope that the premier would enjoy a speedy recovery. Dr. Payne pointed out in his discussion about the probability of Sir James' return to his work, that Mr. Scott's case provided virtually a paralled case. Mr. Scott suffered from heart and other troubles and was away from his office travelling for his health, in the United States for many months. Today Mr. Scott was a new man and could truthfully say that he was "stronger than ever"

Return Home Uncertain.

New York, Jan. 7.—While the favorable turn in Sir Jame's illness last night revived the hopes that he could return to Toronto in the near future, Dr. Payne declined to set even a contingent date for the removal. Sir James himself was anxious to get home.

Indeed the chief trouble of those attending on Sir James now is to convince him that though to all appearances his condition is slightly improved, such is the condition of his illness that the slightest excitement would completely undermind the improvement. Unfortunately with the return of complete consciousness came the return of the premier's love of labor and interest in the affairs of the province of Ontario, and though he was requested by Dr. Payne and Lady Whitney to forget his work, he persisted in his enquiries. Repeated assurances that everything was "all right" seemed to satisfy him, though Dr. Payne feared that the premier's inquiries impertusity would not long remain quiescent and that if not controlled would have a most deterious affect. Sir James' case, remarked upon by Dr. Payne, was the steady manner in which his patient was able to take nourishment which was assisting him to build up his strength again.

ECZEMA.

All skin diseases such as Eczema, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Rash, Boils, Pimples, and Itching Skin Eruptions, are always caused from the blood being in a bad condition, and it is impossible to eradicate them from the system unless you put your blood into good shape. This you can very easily do without the slightest trouble by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

It drives out all the humor from the blood, and makes it pure and rich, and not only are the unsightly diseases removed, and a bright clean complexion produced, but the entire system is renovated and invigorated at the same time.

Mrs G. A. Day, Somerville, N.B., writes:—"Last spring I had a bad attack of Eczema. I tried several patent medicines as well as the medicine of a physician, but they seemed to make the disease worse. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters and I did so with the result that in two weeks time the sores began to disappear. I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles and they worked a complete cure."

LATE MARKETS

Winnipeg Grain.

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—Wheat and flax firmed up today, but oats and corn, though steady, have apparently a weak undertone. Trade was pretty well confined to th eprofessional element, and showed no great activity. Cash demand is fair and exporters are picking up a little stuff for all rail shipment. Offerings are, however, very light.

Receipts today are 151 cars inspected and 135 in sight.

Minneapolis receipts were 229 cars, Duluth 44 cars and Chicago 70 cars. Cables closed: Liverpool ⅛ to ¾ lower, Paris unchanged to ¼ up, Berlin ⅛ lower, Budapesth ¼ lower, and Antwerp unchanged. Deliveries through the clearing house were: Wheat 23,000 bushels, oats 50,000 bushels, flax 12,000 bushels.

Chicago Wheat.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Wheat was bearishly affected by the depression of corn and by lower cables. Fine weather in both the winter and spring crop belt acted also against the bulls. Prices started unchanged to ⅝ cents lower, but then rallied somewhat.

Oats gave way with corn. Pit traders and commission houses turned almost unanimously to the selling side.

The market later showed firmness on account of prices here and in St. Louis being virtually at an export basis for hard wheat. The close was steady, ¼ to ⅜ to ½ above last night.

Liverpool Wheat.

Liverpool, Jan. 7.—(Broomhall.)—Easy American cables yesterday and the pressure at Winnipeg caused moderate realizing at the opening, and values declined. Later there wasa further recession, with the undertone easy. Plate ofefrs are easier, with freer Manitoba offers and a less active general demand and the weakness in corn is afefcting sentiment. BEST ROUTE IS BY YELLOW HEAD

Discovered by Sir Sandford Fleming Before G.T.P. or C.N.R.'s Time.

STEEL IS NEARING JASPER

Much Good Farming Land in British Columbia Line of C.N.R.

It may be news to many that the best transcontinental railway survey was completed across Canada way back in the days before the G.T.P. or C.N.R. were even thought of—in fact, when they were just thinking of the C.P.R.

This, however, is the opinion of P. H. Palmer, of Palmer Brothers & Henning, the contractors who are doing a large part of the Canadian Northern work between here and the coast. Mr. Palmer was at the Royal George yesterday, and last night left on the G.T.P. for the end of the C.N. grade.

He says that Sir Sandford Fleming surveyed a route across the prairies and through the mountains for the C.P.R., which, however, was not used by the pioneer Canadian transcontinental, and that this survey followed the line of easiest grades yet discovered through the Rockies. The Canadian Northern has chosen practically the same route all the way, C.N.R. engineers having come across the old survey stakes time and time again, and Mr. Palmer states that when this road is completed through to the coast this year it will be the finest and most up-to-date in America, as far as its route is concerned.

C.N.R. steel is now about five miles from Jasper, which is the second divisional point on the G.T.P. west of Edmonton, and was formerly known as Fitzhugh. The grade is as far as Albreda Summit, near where the line turns south along the North Thompson river in the direction of Kamloops. On the Pacific end, the steel is laid from the coast to Kamloops and about 100 miles beyond. Mr. Palmer's firm had the contract for part of that end also. One of the most costly pieces of construction was the big tunnel at Moose Lake, which is about mile 29 in B. C.

Asked as to the character of the country traversed by the C.N.R. in British Columbia, Mr. Palmer stated that there was much good agricultural land, particularly along the Canoe river, also considerable timber along the North Thompson. It has not been prospected as yet to any extent for minerals, but there are rich deposits of mica and some gold, he stated.

Mr. Palmer believes that the C.P.R. will shortly build through the Yellowhead pass in order to compete successfully with its two younger rivals. He is also of the opinion that there will be several lines through the Rockies north of the Yellowhead. "The Peace River and Mackenzie River countries," he says, "are larger and even richer in natural resources than Central Alberta. We will be building new roads for years and years yet through that country and on to the north Pacific coast."

HAIR CAME OUT BY HANDFULS

With Dandruff and Itching Scalp. Scalp Covered with Small Pimples. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Now No Trouble At All.

593 Jane St., Toronto, Ont.—"I was first troubled with my hair getting brittle and later dandruff and itching scalp. I was afraid to comb my hair as it came out by handfuls and the itching was so severe I was miserable. The trouble kept me from sleeping. My scalp was covered with small pimples which seemed to run into one another and form a scab. The dandruff was so bad I was afraid to comb my hair as it made it show so plainly. It looked very badly. I was thinking of having my head shaved.

"For a long time I tried ——, ——, —— and several other remedies but they did not cure it. After some months I picked up a paper with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent right away for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. On using just the sample my trouble was better. I used six or eight boxes of the Cuticura Ointment also the Cuticura Soap and my scalp healed, the itching stopped and my hair came in quite thick and now I have no trouble at all." (Signed) Mrs. H. Binger, May 27, 1913.

It costs nothing to learn how pure, sweet, effective and satisfying Cuticura Soap and Ointment are in the treatment of poor complexions, red, rough hands, itching scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, because you need not buy them until you try them. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book. Send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

Child Had Bronchitis

Once people get acquainted with the wonderful control which Dr. Chases' Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine exerts over bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and colds it is not easy to persuade them that anything else is "just as good." This is why the imitators never get very far.

In 1902 Mrs. Eugene Iler, King street, Truro, N.S., wrote as follows: "From an infant one of my children was troubled with bronchitis, and the least cold would aggrevate the trouble. We could not get anything to help him, and were often greatly alarmed. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a treatment for bronchitis, we used it, and are glad to state that it effected a complete cure. If any of the children take a cold or cough I give this medicine, and have never known it to fail to bring relief."

Mrs. Iler now writes that she has since proven this medicine to be a cure for whooping cough, and would not be without it in the house.

PROWLS ABOUT LANES AT HOUR OF MIDNIGHT AND GETS THIRTY DAYS

Henry Venetta was sentenced to 30 days imprisonment on a charge of vagrancy. Venetta was arrested by Constable O'Brien last night while patrolling the lanes, he asked the accused what he was doing in the lane at that hour of the night and as he was unable to give a satisfactory reason he was conducted to the lock-up. This morning he stated to the magistrate that he had been out of work for three weeks and was unable to get any, further he stated that he had been to the theatre last night and was on his way home when he was arrested. The magistrate did not believe his story and therefore handed him the sentence. About four weeks ago Venetta was allowed out on suspended sentence, by Magistrate Massie on a charge of stealing some bottles from the rear of a hotel.

Mark Kuluck, who had been charged with assaulting John Gill was dismissed this morning by Magistrate Jennings. The evidence was so contradictory that the magistrate was unable to find out who really was to blame. The costs of the action will have to be paid by the complainent.

LABOR HAS ITS INNINGS IN THE STRIKE INQUIRY

Representatives of Organization Take Up Story of the Conflict.

TELL OF GUNMEN HIRED BY OPERATORS

Evidence Taken as to Action of National Guardsmen and Sheriffs.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 7.—Organized labor had its inning today in the investigation which Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris is making into the causes and conditions of the strike of the Copper miners in Northern Michigan.

Officials of the Western Federation of Miners and many of the men on strike expected to appear before the governor and tell their version of the prolonged strike. They planned to take up the story of the conflict where it had been dropped last night by the county authorities of the strike zone. Tomorrow may see the conclusion of the investigation which should close with a decision and settlement of the trouble.

At yesterday's investigation Governor Ferris was given data on the number of "gunmen" employed by the operators and the number of strike breakers that had been imported into the Copper country since the beginning of the strike last summer. Actions of national guardsmen and deputy sheriffs also were questioned and an attempt made to determine the actual number of men who had quit work.

PENNANTS DEFEAT VARSITY IN OVER-TIME LAST NIGHT 3 TO 2

EXTRA TIME IS NEEDED FOR THE PENNANTS TO BEAT VARSITY 3 TO 2

It took extra time for the Pennants to beat Varsity in a senior hockey game at the South Side rink last night. About 1000 fans witnessed the game and saw only a fair exhibition of our national winter sport. The game was not nearly as fast as the one New Year's night between Varsity and the South Side. The main reason for this was the poor condition of the ice. The mild weather of the past few days has not permitted the ice to be flooded and the result was a very heavy and sticky surface.

The game was called about 8:30, and after four and a half minutes play Beecroft scored the first tally for Varsity on a long shot from the side. It is doubtful if Wilson, in goal, saw it coming. "Doc" appeared in the role of goalkeeper for the Pennants, and it was his first game in many moons. Score 1-0. In five and a half minutes the Pennants tied the score, when Donoghue shot from close in. 1-1. Varsity missed a chance to score with a three-man combination, Cliff Steel making a good block. Dietz gets a three-minute rest for taking a slash at Jimmie Steel. It appeared as though they were out to "get" each other from the start. Chubb in goal for Varsity was called upon to stop a number of shots, and handled them nicely. Play is carried from one end to the other and Jimmie Steel gets a three-minute rest. Half time is nearly up and the Pennants are trying hard for a score. Clarke gets put off just as half time is called. Score is a tie. One all.

On resuming play in the second half Deitz runs into the boards and gets laid out for a few minutes. After five minutes and forty-five seconds of play Pennants score again. 2-1. Dietz and Wilson engage in a short slugging match and get three minutes apiece. Russell takes Wilson's place in goal and makes a swoop when the puck comes at him for a sure-enough goal. It was a rather lucky piece of goal-keeping. Varsity takes advantage of Wilson's absence from goal and slips one in after five minutes and fifteen seconds of play. This ties the score, and Varsity tries hard for another but with no luck. Varsity rush on Pennants goal but Cliff Steel blocks, tripping the Varsity player, and gets three minutes intermission for his trouble. "Doc" Carmichael gets a bang on the knee and another delay follows. Pennants should have scored on a two-man rush, but Chubb makes a great stop of a close-in shot. With the score still a tie after having played eighteen and a half minutes since the last goal, full time is called. 2-2. They decide to play until one team scores and they have not long to wait, as after a little scattered play Donoghue secures the rubber at centre ice, rushes and scores in one minute and five seconds. Pennants 3 Varsity 2.

The teams were evenly matched and with better ice would have provided a much faster brand of hockey. Varsity was noticeably weaker by the absence of Dean at rover. With Dean on the line-up the score might have gone the other way. Deitz did not play up to form. In the game against the south side he scored no less than six goals, but last night paid too much attention to roughing it with Jimmie Steel. The two players clashed more than once and some of the remarks passed between them will not be recorded here.

No one has anything on "Doc" Wilson, as a guardian of the nets. He played a whale of a game right through. Lopston of Varsity played a hard game always, and displayed some wonderfully good stick-handling. His long rushes were a feature of the game. "Lobby's" eyesight is getting dim and he appeared last night wearing a "mask." One great fault of the players last night was that of overskating the puck. This was due to the sticky condition of the ice. The going was hard all through and had a tendency to slow the game up at times. Far too many long shots were tried, and also the shooting of some players was very "wide" at times. Carmichael has a bad habit of carrying the puck down too far before taking a shot. He missed many chances on that account last night. Otherwise "Doc" played a hard game. Taking it altogether, every man played a fairly respectable game considering the heavy condition of the ice.

The next game at the South Side rink will be Friday night when the Pennants and the South Side play a double-header. Following is the line-up of the teams who played last night:

Varsity.	Position.	Pennants.
Chubb	Goal	Wilson
Lopston	Point	C. Steele
Riley	Cover	Russell
Beecroft	Rover	J. Steele
Clarke	Centre	Ross

REGINA DEFEATS ROULEAU SEVEN BY TWELVE-TWO

Regina, Jan. 7.—The attraction for the opening of the finest hockey rink in Western Canada which is located in the winter fair building at the fair grounds here was a scheduled game between the Rouleau seven and the local Victorias. The locals won with ease by a score of 1 2to 2. The ice was very soft and this fact militated against the speed of the local team. Had it not been for this fact the score would have been much larger.

The Victorias outclassed their opponents at every stage of the game and in every department. After Otton had shot the first goal, in five minutes of play, it was a continual march towards Rouleaus' goal. The opening ceremonies were made attractive by the presence of Mayor Martin, who officially opened the new rink. John Balfour, and T. B. Patton, prominent in sporting circles here faced off as a preliminary to the beginning of the game.

Hammond and McCullough starred for Regina, while Banks and Gordon looked best for the visitors.

McAllister Matched.

New York, Jan. 7.—Bob McAllister, San Francisco middle-weight, who secured a popular decision over Battling Levinsky Monday night, was matched last night to meet Mike Gibbons, of St. Paul in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden on the night of January 12.

TODAY IN PUGILISTIC ANNALS

1903—Jimmy Gardiner defeated Joe Walcott in 12 rounds at Boston. It was this defeat that convinced that "Barbados Demon," former welterweight champion of the world, that his fighting days were over. Some years before the "Demon" attended a "mulligi" party, and, while showing off his fun, shot himself through the hand. He was never the same again. Joe was 36 when he was whipped by Jimmie Gardiner. The "Demon" always did have bad luck with the Gardiners. He was twice defeated by George Gardner, the Irish middleweight. Incidentally, both George Gardner and Jimmy Gardner were born in county Clare, Ireland.

1824—Tom Spring, English, defeated Jack Langan, Irish, in championship bout near London.

1877—Billy Rhodes, the Kansas City welterweight, born in St. Paul, Minn.

1911—Johnny Kilbane defeated Tommy O'Toole in 5 rounds at Philadelphia.

MELVILLE BEATS MOOSE JAW AGAIN BY FIVE TO FOUR

Moose Jaw, Jan. 7.—In a fast and interesting game of hockey played at Melville last night the Moose Jaw hockey club underwent its four defeat, losing out in a desperate struggle by a score of 5 to 4. The half time score stood 2 to 0 in favor of the Moose and they added another immediately after the interval. The northerners then came with a rush and won.

VICTORIA BEATS VANCOUVER SIX TO FIVE, EASILY

Vancouver, Jan. 7.—In one of the most desperate finishes witnessed in coast hockey, Victoria beat Vancouver by a score of 6 to 5 last night and formed another three-cornered tie. Dunderdale's soft goal in the second period paved the way for a victory, and culminated in Victoria securing four goals in a row.

In the last period Vancouver outplayed the visitors and got through two goals but Victoria played on the defensive and managed to finish in front. It was clean hockey throughout. Pietre and Taylor starred for Vancouver, while Rowe and Kerr were the best for the visitors. The match was witnessed by a big crowd.

Coal summary: Firt period, 1, Vancouver Pietre 10 second; 2, Vancouver Taylor, 1:20; 3 Victoria Kerr 6:10.

Second period: 4, iVctoria Rome 1:59; 5, Vancouver Nichols 1:11; 6 Victoria Dunderdale 3:10; 7 Victoria Rowe 1:14; 8 Victoria Rome 8 seconds; 9, Victoria Dunderdale 10:09.

Third period: 10, Vancouver Taylor 12:11; 11, Vancouver Patrick 2:16.

MECHANICAL DEVICE TO KEEP TIME IN PRIZE FIGHTS, NEXT

A mechanical device to keep time in prize fights and indicate the number of rounds has been invented by two Cranton (Ia.,) Jewelers.

This timer will do away with the shortening or lengthening of rounds to favor a fighter—something that has been done in the past.

The timer is a large dial with four figures as indicated by the drawing. The hand consumes a minute moving from one figure to another, and a bell rings every time it reaches the naught and the figure three.

Above the naught a large number appears, changing with each round so the spectators can see at a glance which round is being contested.

REFEREE EYTON SAVED BOXING GAME TOO MUCH MONEY FOR FIGHTING

Fitzsimmons Thinks Big Purses Are Spoiling the Fighters—Referee Eyton Tells of a Quick Decision With Much at Stake.

"I'll never forget the Wolgast-Memsic fight," said Charles F. Eyton, who has refereed all the big bouts in Los Angeles for years ,to a newspaperman recently. "The liveliest three minutes of my life, that meant new life or death to boxing in California, were those of the ninth round, March 17, 1911. The boys were to box 20 rounds. The gate approximated $18,000. A deputy, representing the district attorney and accompanied by 10 detectives, announced that if the law was broken, all would be arrested.

"The fight was a test case and the fate of California boxing was at stake.

"With this on my mind I sent Wolgast and Memsic on their journey. I decided the public deserved first consideration. The men who paid should get their money's worth; the champion and challenger must get justice; the law must be adhered to only one who knows boxing can appreciate my position.

"With the end of the eighth, I saw that barring a lucky blow, Wolgast would win. I was deciding when to stop the bout. The detectives had been talking to each other excitedly. A knockout meant the death of boxing. Knowing this, I wanted to do justice to George Memsic. Not to save the game would I have stopped the contest while he had a chance.

"With the ninth, Wolgast started body punishment, fighting Memsic about the ring. The detectives started jumping up again and I had to think quicker than ever. After a hot exchange I saw Memsic stagger, hands down, knees sagging and Wolgast starting to swing. Memsic's hands went up, but before Wolgast could land I stepped between them.

"The excitement was intense, but my action brought its own reward. In the legal proceedings which followed, we were cindicated and boxing is stronger in California than it ever was."

Too much money for too little fighting is taking the edge off the old sport, says "Bob" Fitzsimmons When I first came to America very good men in all classes were glad to fight for anything from a hundred or a couple of hundred dollars up. Only the big champions got big money.

Fighting was a tough game then. It wasn't so much the money that dre wmen to the ring. Most of them fought because they'd rather fight than do anything else. Why, the ould time lightweights, Joe Gans, Dal Hawkins, Kid McFadden, Kid McPartland, and that lot—anyone of whom would be a world's champion today—used to fight for purses of 1500, 1000, or 5700. And they'd fight winner take all, and be glad to get the chance.

Now look at the lightweights today, and what they get and what they expect. Ad. Wolgast is a good little fighter, but he isn't any better than a whole lot of the old-timers. Wolgast got into the habit of demanding something like $22,000 for his "end" when ever he was asked to make a match.

I know some of the old-timers who wouldn't have called off a match for a dislocated thumb like way Wolgast called off his match with Dundee.

We didn't call off matches for anything less than a broken leg when I was fighting.

I beat Corbett with a dislocated right thumb, and fought Jeffries with two smashed hands. When I fought Johnson my right arm was twisted by Jeanette in training ,and all the ligaments torn away from the elbow.

I fought Sharkey and Ruhlin when I was so full of malaria fever I didn't half know where I was ,and knocked them both out. We didn't call fights off for little things in those days.

CALGARY CHINOOKS VS. ESKIMOS ARENA RINK 8 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

Old Time Rivals Will Battle for Supremacy in Senior Hockey Game. Record Crowd Expected. Another Game to Follow the Main Event. Dea Will Not Play. Chinooks Look Strong Team.

This is the big night at the Arena rink. Calgary Chinooks and the Edmonton Eskimos meet for the first time this season, hockey [illegible] That the Eskimos will be up against a fast aggregation of hockey players, goes without saying. The Chinooks are tooted as being the fastest team in the south and are possibly better able to stand the stress of soft ice that may be tonight. However, the big sheet of ice at the Arena will not have suffered as the out-door rinks have in the matter of havin gpoor ice.

With hard ice the Eskimos could be counted upon to make the Chinooks travel, but ever with this condition against them, Doscon's pets will be in the game right from the start. The Eskimos have practiced hard since their game with the Dominions on New Years, and have shown a lot of improvement. It is not likely that Howard Dea will be on the lineup as he has not been feeling quite up to the mark lately. With this one exception, the lineup of the Eskimos will probably be the same as in previous games.

It is up to the Eskimos to win tonight as another defeat would mean quite a set-back so early in the schedule. There will be a special car service for the convenience of the large crowd that will want to see the game. The puck will be faced as shortly after 8 o'clock as possible as there is another game to follow the big event. The Hustlers and the Post Office teams in the Independent league are the opposing teams. Both games will be seen for the one price of admission. A record crowd should be on hand to see the old time rivals, Calgary and Edmonton battle for supremacy. The probable line-up for the big game is as follows:

Eskimos	Position	Chinooks
	Goal
Reid		Crooks
	Point
Muirhead		Malush
	Cover
Duncan		Bishop
	Rover
Stanley		McGrath
	Centre
Lynne		McQuarrie

At the 65th regiment armory Buffalo on New e'Ar's night the Toronto four-man relay team defeated the all-New York team in the one mile relay race, and incidently Mel Brock of the Toronto team broke the world's indoor record for the quarter mile. Brock was the last man of the team to run and his opponent was James Rossenberger. The Toronto team was composed of Jack Tressider, Jack Tait, Hector Phillips and Mel Brock. The time for the one mile was 3.25 2-5, a new record for the Buffalo armory, by 3 2-5 seconds. Brock ran his quarter in 50 seconds flat. Brock had four yards lead on Rosenberger at the beginning of his quarter and Rosenberger caught him at the half way mark and endeavored to pass him three times in the last 100 yards but failed. Tait has been one of the leading lights in Canadian track athletics during the last five or six years. Tressider won the Canadian quarter and half mile championship at Vancouver last fall. The all-Toronto team also won the medlay relay race from New York and broke the record for the distance. In this race Phillips ran 22 0yards, Tressider 440 yards, Brock the half mile and Tait finished with the mile run. The time was 7.499 2-5.

Troubled With Weak Back and Kidneys For 10 Years.

Many people fail to understand the significance of a lame, weak, sore or aching back.

When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Take notice to the warning and cure the backache on the first sign, for if you don't do this, serious complications are sure to arise and perhaps develop into Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills will strengthen the weak back, and prevent any form of kidney trouble entering the system.

Mrs. Ed. Boyer, Nokomis, Sask., writes:—"I have been troubled with weak back and kidneys. I had terrible dizzy headaches, and could not sleep at night. In this way I suffered for ten years, until I read about Doan's Kidney Pills. I purchased two boxes, and as they helped me, I sent for two more; they put me on my feet, and I have been able to work ever since."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents a box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

BOXING PROMOTERS APPROVE BARRING OF FITZSIMMONS

New York, Jan. 6.—Although fight promoters here today expressed satisfaction with the ruling of the state boxing commission, that the veteran former champion, Bob Fitzsimmons, could not appear in a ring in this state, everyone was awaiting to hear what Fitz would have to say.

The general opinion of the fight folk here was that the appearance of a man as old as Fitz after being out of active fighting for years would be putting the game to a sever test. No matter how hopeless the crop of "white hopes" may be, or how good Fitz may have been in his prime, he would make a sorry showing against the youth and the vigor of men years younger than he, it contended.

NATIONAL BASEBALL COMMISSION NOW HOLDING THEIR BIG MEETING

Players Fraternity Present 17 Requests—Much Business and Discussion Held—Committee Agrees to Most of the Requests.

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—If all or any of the requests of the Players Fraternity for a revision of the rules for organized baseball is to be granted by the National baseball commission, or the commission, from the minor league it will be only after a hard struggle. This developed early at the joint meeting of the bodies here yesterday when the committee fraternity was heard. The committee was headed by Devir Fultz, president of the fraternity and numbered five players. It was decided to take up the requests one by one. If no agreement could be reached on any of them it was to be laid aside and the next taken up.

The first request was as follows: "When a player receives ten days' notice of unconditional release he shall be free to sign with any team immediately, the contract to run from the expiration of the ten days period. It was discussed three-quarters of an hour and after the players committee refused to permit the substitution by the committee of the word "negotiate" after the words "shall be free to" was laid aside to be taken up later.

The second request taken up read: "National association players shall receive ten days' notice before they can be released unconditionally."

Mr. Seaton argued this rule for the committee from the minor leagues. He said this concession might be made by class A and class B leagues, but that below that standing it was impossible. He declared that 75 per cent. of the league below class A. were losers last year and that he estimated with this rule in effect last year, it would have cost the minor leagues below class A. $320,000.

After a further debate request number two was passed over for further consideration. Secretary J. H. Farrell of the National board was heard at length on the subject. Request No. 8 which read: "When a player is transferred he shall be transferred subject to all the terms of his contract," brought forth more opposition from the National commission. Chairman Herrmann insisted it would be doing the player a grave injury to pass this rule but intimated that if the fraternity desired it the commission had no objection. Mr. Fultz continued argument on the motion at some length but the motion was passed over for further deliberation.

Request No. 4 was the first one that really met with no opposition. It was: "When a player is transferred he shall be furnished with a written contract which shall be binding on all the parties concerned showing what teams have a claim to him and what that claim is."

There was a short discussion of the request but all parties appeared to favor it and Chairman Herrmann announced that it would be granted.

The announcement at this time was not to be binding.

Request No. 5 brought up another squabble. It reads: "When a player receives his unconditional release or when waivers are asked upon him, he shall be notified in writing to the effect. The commission did not take exception to the first part of the request but seriously objected, the part mentioning waivers. Chairman Herrmann explained that secret asking of waivers did not injure the ball players, while Mr. Fultz could not understand why any secrecy in the matter was necessary. The request was finally laid over.

Request No. 6: "At the time contracts are sent out every player shall receive a copy to be kept by him for his own use."

This was agreed to without discussion, Chairman Herrmann saying that he heartily agreed with the players.

Request No. 7: "All written agreements whether embodied in formal contract or not, shall be binding upon both the club and the player."

President Herrmann announced agreement on this rule but this was objected to by the committee from the minor leagues who insisted that all written agreements shall be embodied in the contract and promulgated. After further discussion the rule was agreed to.

This was also agred to. In the discussion of this rule the fact was brought out that all clubs furnish players with uniforms except the National league clubs.

Request No. 9: "Every team shall pay the actual travelling expenses of its players from their homes to the training camps or so much distance not to exceed the expense from the league city to the training camp."

The commission agreed to this without discussion.

Request 10: "If a regular contract is not tendered a probationary player before the expiration of the 45 days probationary period, he shall be a free agent." This was agreed to.

Request No. 11: "If a player has been in major leagues for any portion of the playing season for ten different years and if at any time after the beginning of the tenth year no team in such league desires his services he shall receive his unconditional release; subject, however, to reservation by the club which signs him up."

There was no objection by the major league owners and the rule was agreed to.

Request 12: "If a player has been in the major and the class A leagues for any portion of the playing season of 12 different years and if at any time after the beginning of the twelfth year no team in such leagues desire his services he shall receive unconditional release subject however, to reservation by the club which sign him.

"The committee from class A league strenuously objected to this request and it was passed.

Request 13: "When a team asks for waivers on a player it shall not be permitted to withdraw requests."

After a short discussion this request also was passed.

Request No. 14: "When a player is fined or suspended he shall be given notice in writing, stating the amount of the fine or the duration of the suspension and the reason for it."

This was agreed to.

Request No. 15: "No player shall be discriminated against or his position in organized ball in any way affected because of his connection with the fraternity."

This was agreed to.

Request No. 16: "Every park shall be equipped with a blank wall painted dark green placed back of centre field in line with the pitcher's plats and home base of sufficient size as to afford a back ground for pitched balls."

This was agreed to.

Request No. 17: "Concerns the betterment of the players in-so-far as maintaining them in the highest possible classification. There are five paragraphs to the request and the commission fully agreed with the intent of the request but after much argument it was decided that the manner in which it was worded was unfeasible and would not work out. It is possible however, that a new request to take the place of this rule which will embody the same principles will be agreed to.

Following the introduction of different requests Governor Tener, president of the National league, made a short address after which the open meeting was declared adjourned. The national commission, the commission from the minor leagues and the committee from the minority then went in to executive session.

In all the joint committee agreed to 11 of the requests, and passed over six.

Request No. 1 was finally conceded by the commission to read: "When a player receives 10 days notice of unconditional release he shall be free to sign with any team immediately, the contract to run from the expiration of the ten days period."

No. 4 request was modified to include a five day notice of release to class AA and class A players, but took no notice whatever of other leagues in classification.

No. 3 was conceded by the players fraternity.

In request No. 5 the matter concerning waivers was eliminated and the rule will not read: "When a player is given his unconditional release he shall be notified in writing to that effect.

No. 7 which dealt with agreements was amended so that no side agreements are permissable and that a club making a side agreement be fined $500 by the national commission.

Request 17 was done away with 15 years instead of 12.

entirely, but a new rule embodying the same idea will be formulated and agreed upon.

The commission will meet tomorrow morning to finish up several cases that appear upon its docket. The majority of the board personages in town prepared tonight to leave for their homes tomorrow morning.

GRAND OPERA MADE GOOD SHOWING IN RACES LAST YEAR

The Canadian North-West afforded good stamping ground for sundry horses and owners last year, but of course proved a dismal failure for some who anticipated good pickings. For the greater part of the season. Smith and Proctor's Grand Opera carried all before him and won the record say six races and $6,000. As a matter of fct he won not only more races but a great deal more money. But the strongest horse will tire of perpetual traveling an dperpetual striving, and Grand Opera became weary and at Brandon met with discomfiture. But the season then was very nearly over.

A Strong Aggregation

Grand Opera's conqueror was College Gent, a Winnipeg horse that had been doing in the east of the West what Grand Opera had been doing in the western section of the Northwest, namely, beating all before him. College Gent made a record of 2.09 1-4 and is credited with winning 11 races and $10,250. Another good winner was The Beaver, 2.10 1-4, belonging like College Gent, to the Carson—Rochon combination. He won 3 races and was twice second, his winnings in money being $5,500. Dr. B. P. and Hal McKinney are two other cracks that went through the Northwestern circuit. They are credited respectively with winning 7 races worth $8,465 and 11 races worth $7,575. After leaving the Northwest, however, they took in similar meetings in the states, where they picked up a dollar or two. Other members that contributed to the Rochon—Carson receipts of upwards of $20,000, surely a goodly sum to be gathered in one section of Canada, were Alberta Dillon, 2.10, with $4,465; Ella Penrose and Senora Boy. The last two met with accidents early in the season.

SPORTOGRAPHY

Billy Rhodes, Born 39 Years Ago Today, Was Great Fighter.

A great welterweight boyer who never wore the welterweight crown which seemed at times almost within his grasp was Billy Rhodes, who was born in St. Paul, Minn., thirty-nine years ago today. During his fighting career Rhodes was known as a Kansas Cityan. Rhodes came at a time when the new welterweight division was fairly brimming over with talent. There were Mysterious Billy Smith, the first champ of the welter division; Joe Walcott, Tommy Ryan, Shadow Maher, George Green, Danny Needham, George Green, Joe O'Connell, George Dawson, Tom Williams, Tom Tracey and other great boxers, all anxious to win welterweight crown. There were also Matty Matthews and Rube Ferns, neither of whom appeared as good as Rhodes, although both held the title for brief periods. Rhodes fought several of these men, including Walcott and Ryan, and also knocked out Tony Caponi, a man much larger than himself.

It was his fight with Terry Martin, the Quaker City boxer, and his two battles with Billy Papke, that put Rhodes out of the running as a championship aspirant. In the Martin bout, which was pulled off in Providence, Rhodes injured his head so severely that for a time he seemed a bit queer. In 1907 Rhodes was matched with Billy Papke for a ten-round bout at Peoria, which went to the limit, although the Illinois Thunderbolt got the decision. Rhodes declared that he hadn't received a square deal, and demanded another battle in neutral territory. Three weeks after Rhodes' first battle with Papke they met again in a ring at Davenport, Ia., and one of the fastest and most furious battles ever witnessed was the result. It was a slugfest from first to last, and resulted in a draw. The milling was so hard that it took a lot of the stamina out of Rhodes, and from a near-champion he quickly descended to the level of a second-rater.

Regina, Jan. 7.—With the indications of colder weather tonight, everything is in shape for the opening of the Saskatchewan provincial bonspiel on Thursday morning; a record entry list is assured.

News of the Markets

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—The Winnipeg wheat market opened strong on light receipts, and higher Liverpool cables. Later prices were steady until nearing the close, when a sharp decline occurred. The volume of business was light.

Minneapolis and Chicago were strong at opening, but later were influenced by the weak corn markets and declined in sympathy.

There was no news of importance from the Argentine or winter wheat states.

Winnipeg opened ¼ higher and closed ⅝ to ½ lower.

Minneapolis opened ¼ to ½ higher, and closed ⅝ lower for both months.

Chicago opened ⅛ to ⅝ cent higher and clased ⅝ to ⅛ lower.

The cash demand for all grades of wheat was fairly good, while offerings were light and export inquiry slow.

Cash wheat closed ¼ to ⅝ lower.

Cash oats closed unchanged to ⅛ lower.

Cash barley closed unchanged to ½ higher.

Cash flax closed ¼ lower.

Inspections Monday totalled 342 cars, against 374 last year, and in sight were 175 cars.

Winter wheat, 2 A.R.W., 3; 3 A.R.W., 1.

Oats: 2 C.W., 24; 3 C.W., 31; ex. 1 feed, 6; 1 feed, 3; 2 feed, 12; rejected, 1 no grade, 7; condemned, 1; mixed, 1.

Barley: 3 Extra, 3; No. 3, 10; No. 4, 11; rejected, 3.

Totals: Wheat, 203; oats, 86; barley, 27; flax seed, 24; rye screenings, 1; total, 342.

Toronto, Jan. 7.—Receipts at the Union stock yards were 55 cars, with 610 cattle, 42 calves, 966 hogs and 377 sheep and lambs. There was but a light run offering yesterday following Monday's big run. Prices were practically steady, the top for choicest butcher being 850 for a load of heavy steers. Sheep and lambs were again quite strong around 89 for lambs and 600 to 525 for light ewes.

Hogs were selling about 25 cents higher through the packers, are not bidding the top prices.

Quotations: Butcher cattle, choice, 800 to 875; medium, 700 to 750; common, 600 to 650; butcher cows, choice, 650 to 750; good cows, 600; medium, 500 to 475; common, 350 to 400; butcher bulls, choice, 525 to 575; good bulls, 550 to 625; rough bulls, 275 to 300; feeders, 1,000 pounds, 600 to 675; feeding bulls, 475 to 650; stockers, 525 to 625; medium, 400 to 425; light, 350 to 400; canners, 350 to 400; milkers, choice, each, $60 to $90; common and medium, each, $35 to $45; spring lambs, 875 to 900; light ewes, 705 to 625; heavy, 325 to 350; bucks, 300 to 350; hogs, fed and watered, 900 to 925; f.o.b., 875; off cars, 925.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Wheat finished ⅝ to ½ net lower yesterday and oats were down ½ to ¾ to 1.

Chances that free imports from Canada would soon be a reality, put wheat bulls at a disadvantage. Millers and investors appeared to be more and more reluctant to buy. There was a show of strength early, based in part on the higher cables and partly on the smallness of the receipts northwest of here, but the market soon wavered and practically after corn began to sag. Values displayed no sign of any power to rally. Pressure from Canadian receipts here was in the main responsible for oats going to the lowest price of the season for May delivery. For a while pit traders attmpted to cling to the bull side, but finally were forced to let go.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Cattle receipts, 5,500; markets low. Beeves, 670 to 935; Texas steers, 690 to 890; stockers and feeders, 500 to 750; cows and heifers, 350 to 850; calves, 750 to 1200.

Hogs receipts 39,000, market 5 to 10 cents lower; light, 790 to 815; mixed, 825; heavy, 790 to 830; rough, 790 to 805; pigs, 690 to 810; bulk sales, 810 to 825.

Sheep receipts 27,000; market steady to 15 cents lower. Native, 475 to 615; lambs, native, 675 to 815.

Montreal, Jan. 7.—The trade in butter and cheese is slow. The demand for eggs is good, supplies are ample to fill all requirements, in fact the receipts of the the strictly fresh have increased to such an extent that prices have declined 5 to 7 cents per dozen. Cheese, finest westerns, 13¾ to 14; easterns, 13½ to 13⅝; butter, choicest creamery, 28½ to 29; seconds, 26½ to 27; eggs, fresh, 48 to 50; selected, 38; 1 stock, 34; 2 stock, 26; pork, heavy Canada short mess brls., 35 to 45; prcs., 30; short cut back brls., 45 to 55; prcs., 20.

Worker Horribly Injured.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—G. Currie, a steam fitter, sustained terrible injuries yesterday while testing a hot water boiler at Westboro, near here. The boiler exploded, a piece of metal tearing away his right arm. He was taken to a hospital and it is said he will recover.

DEFENSE OF LASH AS PREVENTATIVE AGAINST CRIME

Governor of Deleware Explains Why They Whip Prisoners in His State

MOST EFFICACIOUS OF THE PENAL SYSTEM

He Issues Defiance to "Sentimentalists" Who Would Abolish It.

The State of Delaware is the only one of the United States that whips its criminals at public whipping posts and also pillories them. It has done this ever since it became a State. There have been periodical waves of agitation throughout the nation for the abolition of these forms of punishment. The most violent wave of the kind culminated recently in a demand before Congress for Federal action compelling Delaware to discontinue its whipping post.

Here Governor Charles R. Miller of Delaware explains why his State believed in whipping criminals, why it is prepared to resist any proposed Federal or private interference with its whippings and why he believes whipping is more efficatious as a preventive of crime than the penal systems in other States.

By HON. CHARLES R. MILLER
Governor of Delaware

Delaware has whipped criminals of certain types since 1656 and will continue to whip them until the statutes under which corporeal punishment is inflicted shall be repealed.

Congress cannot, and certainly will not, interfere in the exercise of proper authority under the law, and as the whipping post is an integral part of the criminal law of Delaware every law officer must consent to its use regardless of any personal views he may have in the matter. Hysterical women, weak men, bullies, cranks and blackguards in all parts of the country have written to me demanding that I set aside the law and prohibit whippings for crime in Delaware. These good souls give no heed to the fact that the whippings are quite as legal in Delaware as imprisonment. Their demands amount to anarchy, so far as law enforcement goes. They cry, "Down with the law!" without knowing whereof they speak.

I want every criminal, every sharper and every moral leper to know that if he comes to Delaware and violates the law he will not only serve a long term in our none too comfortable jails, but that he will be whipped in public on his bare back before he enters his cell. I wish this fact could be spread to the uttermost corners of the country.

To Whip Certain Punishment

Delaware wants no undesirable citizen. This State offers nothing but the whip and the workhouse for the gunmen, white slavers, panders, highwaymen, and common thieves which people the underworld of some of our larger cities and who seem to get a certain amount of applause for their more daring performances from the same type of people who demand that I shall set aside a fundamental law of my State and defy the decrees of our High Court.

Delaware houses one-half of her population in the city of Wilmington. All the rest of the State is strictly rural. Our people are of the soil. They are typical farmers—plain, wholesome, God-fearing people who obey the law and who punish crime with severity. We have neither the means nor the machinery with which to patrol our rural districts with armed officers. It follows, then, that we must have laws carrying severe penalties and rigidly enforce them.

Half the people in Delaware south of Wilmington never lock their doors at night, window fasteners are uncommon, and thought of burglars is totally absent from the minds of our people. Once in a long while some half-drunken loon will enter a house at night. When he is not kicked out as a mere intruder he is locked up, tried, convicted and whipped according to law, and then locked up long enough to think it over himself and to deter all others from a like offense.

Fact Is Overlooked

Those who criticise the whipping post adversely overlook the fact that Delaware is the broad highway between four chief American cities.

Our unthinking critics include those who do not know that time or the loss of time means nothing at all to a very large proportion of our population. A day, or a week, or a month, more or less, costs a lowgrade negro nothing at all in opportunity or in money. The native negroes of Delaware know their place and make no trouble. They are far above the average in habits and in intelligence, but we have a floating negro population which is definitely bad, and we must safeguard our people, white and black, against those who come from all parts of the Shore country to the canneries, work a few weeks or months and then pass on, only to give place to another lot just as bad, or even worse.

The negro with city habits is a worse proposition than the farm trained hand, who is usually law abiding and useful. Delaware can handle her own negroes with little or no force, but the passing throng of bad men needs attention, and they file by with eyes front on the whipping posts. Cells mean nothing at all to such men, white or black.

No White Slavery

Delaware is absolutely free from all forms of white slavery. This particular form of crime is punished here without recourse to the Mann Act or aid from the Federal authorities. Did the whipping post do naught else but keep cadets out of Delaware it proves its eternal value here. In every other State in the Union in which there is a large city the white slave problem comes up with a degree of regularity. The same people who condemn the whipping post wring their hands and wonder what to do about the cadets and their wretched victims. Delaware answers, "Whip the cadet!"

Years ago a gang of desperadoes undertook to rob a Wilmington bank. They tunneled under the building, and would have caried off $500,000 in negotiable securities but for the auspices of an alert watchman. They were arrested, and on trial paid one attorney a very large fee solely to the end that they might be saved from the public whipping. The late great Chief Justice Lore sentenced them to long terms in prison and to the utmost limit of the law as to pillory and lashes.

There has never been a bank robbery attempted in Delaware from that day to this by professional burglars. These men were bank robbers of the first grade; the same men who managed one of the sensational robberies in New York—the Metropolitan Bank, I think. That type of criminal never considers Delaware now for a second.

Do Not Fear Prison

A prison term means nothing at all to him, but he would never dare show his face in his usual haunts after the lash fell on his bare back in a Delaware jail.

All prison reformers and all humanitarians agree that the object of all punishment is to prevent crime—remotely to cure the criminal. We are not discussing the cure of criminals. We are discussing the whipping post per so, and I submit that the whipping post has prevented two of the most terrible of all crimes short of murder—white slavery and burglary. There is a grave doubt in my mind if there has been a single burglary in Delaware within 20 years committed by a man who was entirely sane and wholly sober, and I do not recall any second offenders.

It will not be seriously questioned that society has a right to protect itself. If the whipping post proves to be a perpetual and potential protector against the burglar, the highwayman and the cadet, why cry down its effectiveness? New York had an epidemic of gunmen; Chicago had an epidemic of highwaymen; Boston and Philadelphia made war on cadets. Delaware simply painted her whipping posts and multiplied school houses.

Within recent weeks, in Philadelphia, Judge Norris S. Barratt declared from the bench that nothing except a thoroughly good whipping at a public post would serve to adequately punish a wife beater before him. This learned jurist is intimatoly familiar with social and political conditions in Delaware and, before the Sons of Delaware, most ably defended the whipping post as an aid to crime provention.

Solitary Confinement Fails

Solitary confinement has been proved a failure. It rots out the prisoner, destroys all ambition, and when his hour of freedom comes he is without initiative, without occupation and without hope. Trades are now taught these men, but day after day they are "lined up" as professionals, and their lives become a misery to them.

Now I repeat that the basic idea of punishment has to do with the protection of society against the criminal. It would be a little beyond me to explain the psychological effect of a public whipping upon the mind of a professional criminal, but of course I had ideas. The fact remains, however, that the mere prospect of such a whipping keeps men out of Delaware who would not hesitate a second to "shoot up" a dance hall in New York or Chicago.

It is a fact of common knowledge that ship masters of undoubted courage, of tested and proved valor, are as timid as little children when ashore; that firemen who never give a thought to personal peril at a conflagration bawl and make an awful to-do about having a tooth filled. Frank Gotch, the wrestler, who could tear an ordinary man apart with his hands, bows with absolute submission, I am told, to the will of Mrs. Gotch.

Doubtless the men of science, the psychologists, have a definite name for this phenomenon of the mind. I do not know this word, but I do know that burglars and highwaymen who would brave the police force of Philadelphia or any other large city will not even consider a "job" in Delaware, and that these men when asked why, invariably reply that they vill take no chance of the whipping post. It may be display of vanity more than fear. I do not quite know.

Would Prevent Crime

I have no quarrel with those who want to reform prisons, but I am a most earnest advocate of any and every method that prevents crime, and this the whipping post does to a marked degree.

The sense of shame that follows a public whipping is quite a different matter from the innermost feelings of the same man flogged in privacy. In the underworld, where there exists strata of preferment just as there are social equations in organized society, a man who has done "a bit" of long duration lives in a degree of reflected glory. A yeggman who has served 10 or 12 years in Cherry Hill, Sing Sing, Joliet or any one of the other notorious prisons has a certain standing among his fellows in crime. But it is a curious yet certain fact that the man who is whipped in public loses caste at once and forever. It seems to be that in having been sentenced to be whipped, the scene in the court room, the display in the jailyard and the final flogging—all produce a profound and a lasting mental shock.

This is not true when a mere warder calls a man out of his cell, beats him and then throws him in a dark hole. This performance is followed by mere resentment. The victim of this system, and the prisoner is very often a victim, merely promises himself to kill the warder if he ever has a chance, or some like foolish threat. Not so when a High Court, a Chief Justice, orders the whipping. It is the effect upon the mind of the man whipped and the result of the whipping upon the minds of other criminals that count. It is purely psychic, but it is none the less effective.

Objects of Derision.

None of the men whipped in Delaware is punished to the point that very great physical torture follows. Such a lashing would create a martyr of a criminal, and this must be avoided.

Criminals of the type that hold up trains, raid banks and rob government buildings are jealous of their reputaions in the underworld. Once whipped they become objects of derision and contempt in their own circles. Some of these men are inordinately vain. It is quite likely that this vanity, affectation or love of even doubtful glory deters them from invading Delaware and daring the post.

Notice how the arrest of a notorious yeggman is always followed by accurate reports of his record. Study these records and you will seldom see that the prisoner was whipped in Delaware. It is idle to assume that these men are afraid to come to Delaware because we have police, a militia and all the other agencies for the enforcement of law. These are common to all communities. They are not in any degree afraid of the phyiscal punishment involved in a Delaware whipping. Many of them in friendly boxing bouts are more thoroughly beaten up every few days while exercising. It is the preliminaries, the mental picture of the trial, the solemnity of the sentence, the ignominy of the performance, and, last of all, the contempt, ridicule and humiliation at the hands of their consorts, male and female, that produce the result first on the individual whipped, and ultimately upon all of his kind.

If there was nothing to it but a mere flogging by a prison warder of doubtful authority; simply one man in brief authority beating up another man but temporarily in his keeping, there would be, could be, no such result, and the whipping of criminals would probably degenerate into revolting performances with attending scandals. The Delaware System precludes any such possibility.

The women of the nation lead in all humaritian work as they should. In every large city in the United States, except Wilmington, Delaware, some brute is sent to jail every day or so for wife beating. Chicago has had to establish a Court of Domestic Relations for the almost exclusive benefit of women who have been whipped by beasts who swore to love and honor them. Delaware will never need any such court so long as the whipping post is so near the court house and in such great favor with our judiciary. There is no judge sitting in Delaware who does not strongly favor the lash for wife beaters.

Some of our good friends who call themselves penologists, philanthropists, humanitarians and prison reformers overlook one all important matter in their crusades. This essential is the prevention of crime. Without discussion I will agree to everything that any of them propose for the health and education and reformation of a criminal, but I still insist that he is best off when he is kept from crime.

Sentiment of the State.

The people of Delaware are not barbarians. In education, in culture, in true charity and in man's love for man the people of Delaware rank with the best in the land and in patriotism second to none. It is absurd to attempt the indictment of a people of a sovereign State. Delaware has a proud place in the history of the country and is prepared to meet every proper issue as it arises and congressmen from the wilds of Montana will do well to study the practical results following legislation in Delaware before asking for federal interference in a purely State matter.

Let every professional criminal in all the world know that Delaware is no field for his operation; that crime here means public whippings on the bare back, the ultimate of public disgrace, absolute enforcement of the law, and Delaware will be well served. Other States may toy with the criminal, experiment with crime and multiply the police, but Delaware will continue to prevent crime and thus save the criminal from himself and protect the public from the criminal.

There is no considerable sentiment against the whipping post in Delaware.

Narrow Escape

The Irishman was relating to some friends in Glasgow how one night on retiring to bed he fancied he saw a ghost, and, having a revolver handy, he fired at it. Next morning he examined the object he had shot and discovered it to be his shirt.

"What did you do then?" exclaimed one of the company.

"Bedad, I just thanked heaven I wasn't inside ov it," replied Pat.—London Tit-Bits.

SETTLERS POURING INTO PEACE RIVER

Demand for Supplies Will Be Increased Threefold This Year.

STORY IS NOT HALF TOLD

Country Can Grow Grain and Vegetables Equal to Any Other Part.

"So many people have flocked into the Peace River country, especially during the past year that the demand for supplies will be three times as great this year as last. Settlers, prospectors, promoters and all manner of men are pouring into the vast territory in great numbers, and although the influx has only commenced already little patches here and there are pretty well settled."

The speaker was G. W. Coldeugh, purser for the "Grenfell," a steamboat plying up and down the mighty Peace, and owned by the Diamond P. company, one of the pioneer navigation companies of the new north. Its route is nearly 600 miles in length, being from Hudson's Hope, B.C., east and north on the Peace river to Fort Vermilion—quite a stretch of water navigation for an inland territory.

Mr. Coldeugh does not like to tell one all he has learned about the country during his two years' stay there. In fact, he believes that if he did people would consider his enthusiasm fake. He says he would prefer anyone who is interested or curious to go and see things for himself. "This country," he said, "that we used to hear was good only for buffalo, Indians and other things peculiar to the north, can and does grow grains and vegetables the equal if not the superior of any other part of Canada."

The most important points at present between Peace River Crossing and Hudson's Hope are Dunvegan, 60 miles west of the Crossing; Fort St. John, 2nd miles west, and Half Way River, 240 miles west. Mr. Coldeugh said that the prettiest bench land he had ever seen is between Fort St. John and Hudson's Hope. Many settlers, prospectors and others went into the country south of Hudson's Hope, between that point and Fort George, last summer, some of them said to be on a secret hunt for iron ore deposits. Big ranchers from Texas and elsewhere are also coming into this last ranching region and taking up as much land on leases as they can secure. One Victoria, B.C., man has leased a 10,000-acre ranch at Mirror Crossing, B.C. As a rule those who have gone into the country so far have been well provided with money and other necessities.

Are You Droopy, Tired, Worn Out?

Here is Good Advice to All Who Feel as if Their Vigor and Life Had all Oozed Away.

This Condition Can be Quickly Cured by a Good Cleansing Medicine.

Your experience is probably somewhat similar to that described by Mr. J. T. Fleming in the following letter from his home in Lebanon: "I think I must have the most sluggish sort of a liver. In the morning my mouth was bitter, and that foul, soft feeling that tells you, 'No breakfast needed here this morning.' A cup of coffee would sort of brace me up, but in two hours I was disposed to quit work, all energy having oozed out of me. Supper was my only good meal, but I guess I didn't digest very well for I dreamt to beat the band. A friend of mine put me wise to Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I think they must have taken hold of my liver, perhaps my stomach, too, because at the very start they made things go right. Took at me now—not sleepy in day-time, but beaming for the mighty dollar and getting fun out of life every minute. That's what Dr. Hamilton's Pills have done for me—they have rebuilt and rejuvenated my entire system."

To keep free from headache, to feel young and bright, to enjoy your feet young and bright, to enjoy your meat, nothing can help like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box, five for $1.00 at all druggists and storekeepers or postpaid from The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

FIRST AID TO INJURED CLASS WILL OPEN AT THE Y. M. C. A. THIS EVENING

The "first aid to the injured" class will meet tonight at 7:15 for the first time. The organization of such a class in Edmonton is a splendid idea and should meet with much success. A few years ago a similar class was opened in Toronto and hundreds of men took advantage of the opportunity to gain this very valuable knowledge. Among those who attended the class were a large number of the city's policemen, who so often had occasion to render "first aid" service. The police force of Edmonton might do well to take up the study.

The class is under the direction of Dr. Garner and Physical Director Pattison of the Y. M. C. A. and the classes will be held in the "Y." The course includes 12 lectures. The admission fee is $1, which includes book, bandage and examination. The lectures will be fully illustrated by actual "first aid" work on patients.

At the end of the course the pupils will try an examination with the St. John's Ambulance association, under whose auspices the classes are being held.

COAL AND OTHER MINERALS PLENTY

Lumbering Will Also Play Important Part in Peace River Development.

FOUR SAWMILL OUTFITS IN COURSE OF ERECTION

Many Timber Berths Owned and Trees Are of Very Good Dimensions.

Agriculture will be by no means the only important industry carried on in the Peace River country and the other territory now being opened up by the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. railway. It is known that there are immense deposits of coal and other minerals, but another basic industry not common to a prairie country, lumbering, will also play a leading part in the future development of the country—in fact it is doing so now.

With the prospect of modern freight facilities in the near future, as the road seems to be losing no time in getting through, many sawmill outfits are being taken to various strategic points, particularly along the rivers, near where the Dunvegan road crosses them.

G. W. Geldeugh, purser of the Diamond P. steamer, Grenfell, which plies up and down the Peace river for 600 miles, who is now in the city, met four sawmill outfits going up on his way down, and he stated that several others are on the way.

One mill is being installed at a point 14 miles east of Peace River Crossing by Mr. Lee Gerouard, while just across the river from the Crossing, Captain Magee is putting in another. H. A. George of the Hudson's Bay company and Mr. Gauthier, well known men of the north, are also taking in or about to take in outfits.

Cornwall and Gauthier have a very modern mill near Mirror Landing on the Athabasca, worth $15,000 and with a capacity of 60,000 feet per day. It was started in July last and now employs 45 men. The site is only about a mile away from the Dunvegan and in the spring a spur will be built to it. It is the intention of this firm to establish other lumber mills at various points in the north as soon as facilities can be procured. The timber for this mill is obtained from a limit close to the mill—estimated to contain 10,000,000 feet. Every kind of finished lumber can be secured.

According to all reliable reports the timber wealth of the country lying between Edmonton and the Peace River is enormous. W. H. Smith, chief engineer of the E. D. and B. C. road, estimates that there are one billion feet tributary to that road alone. Mr. Gauthier of Cornwall & Gauthier, who is well acquainted in the north, says that between Mirror Landing and Whitecourt, a distance of 200 miles along the Athabasca river, there are no less than 2 61mber berths not lumber owned by various parties, and estimated to contain 200,000,000 feet of lumber or more. Along the Pembina he says there are large quantities of spruce and jack pine, while between Grouard and Peace River Crossing he estimates there are about 700,000,000 feet of spruce, cottonwood and tamarac. Mr. Gauthier's firm is supplying the lumber for the bridges on the Dunvegan railway.

The trees in the north are not all small either. The Lesser Slave Lake Lumber company, which has a 20,000 capacity mill near Sawridge, owns a timber berth near by, mostly spruce and tamarac. The average diameter of the trees being 18 inches and J. S. Mooney, the Hudson's Bay factor at Sawridge, says that there is a block of spruce six miles square between the Athabasca and Narrow rivers, the trees of which average three and a half feet at the base.

GOOD TEMPLARS HOLD EDUCATIONAL MEETING IN EASTWOOD CHURCH

The Hope of Norwood, I.O.G.T. lodge, No. 188, held a very successful and educational meeting at the Eastwood Methodist church, Kinnaird street, on Tuesday evening, a large number of visitors from the Reform lodge being in attendance.

After the meeting was opened the visitors were given a hearty reception in ritual form and one new member was initiated. Brother A. Donald then invited Brother H. P. Brown, chief templar of Reform lodge, to preside, and after a short speech Brother Brown introduced Brother J. Hilton, who is taking up organization work on behalf of the I.O.G.T. He spoke very fluently of the possibilities of organizing in different parts of the city and asked for the opinions of the members, which was readily responded to, many questions being answered by Brother Hilton, who is an ardent temperance worker.

Brother McQuintrey then gave some excellent piano selections which were greatly appreciated.

BLACKENED REMAINS OF BURNED AUTO FOUND ON THE PEACE RIVER TRAIL.

While travelling from Mirror Landing to Athabasca, W. H. Smith, chief engineer of the Dunvegan railway, and R. B. Douglas, provincial railway engineer, discovered the blackened remains of an automobile, and thought that this belonged to C. Lyons, a Jasper avenue merchant, who had recently been travelling through that part of the country. It is thought that the accident occurred while the party were having lunch, and that in some way the gasoline caught fire and exploded. The car was completely burned, the two front tires being the only thing that is not destroyed.
